FIRE DEPARTMENT

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen.

Gentlemen: The Board of Fire Engineers respectfully submit the following report. The Department answered 19 alarms—13 still, 3 bell and 3 by the whistle which was installed the latter part of the year.

6 grass fires; total area burned about 10 acres.

3 chimney fires; slight damage.

3 automobiles; loss about $1,625.00.

25 tons of hay in 5 stacks; loss $500.00.

Tree on fire from electric wires.

Packing around water pipes on water tanks, $15.00.

1 cottage at Idlewood Lake, caused by spontaneous combustion. Total loss, $800.00.

The department was called out for fire on Arthur Little estate, Grapevine Road, on Beverly line. Beverly received alarm first and had a stream of water on the fire before our company got there. We attached a line onto theirs, giving them a line and our company a line; the two companies confined the fire in the ell. Being a partition fire made it one of the most difficult to fight. The damage to furniture and house was $11,000.

At the Annual Town Meeting last year it was voted to build two fire cisterns under the direction of the Fire Engineers Specifications were sent out to eight contractors and we received bids from six. The lowest bid was for two cisterns of 10,000 gallons capacity, $938.00, submitted by Mr. T. A. Moynihan, of South Hamilton, and he was given the contract.

$1,200.00 was sum appropriated for two cisterns.

938.00 was contract price for two cisterns.

100.00 amount held as guarantee waterproof.

27.00 cost of sounding.

83.88 amount for extra labor on both, as follows:

22.88 on extra labor on West End cistern, digging up drain pipe under Mr. Daniel's driveway and cleaning same, digging gutter so the water would run into pipe to cistern.

$13.50 to W. B. Chase for sounding.

$61.00 extra at Larch Row; on account of ledge, cistern was moved 8 feet further along.

$13.50 to W. B. Chase for sounding.

Due T. A. Moynihan,		$1,021 88
Jan. 1 Paid T. A. Moynihan,	$921 88
Balance due T. A. Moynihan,	100 00
Paid W. B. Chase,	27 00
Total cost,		$1,048 88
Returned to Town,		$151 12

Miss Helen Frick sent a check to the Chief of Department for $50.00 for the benefit of Department. The Engineer, knowing the intent of the giver, gave it to the Company, with the understanding that they start a Relief Association among the active members of the department for the benefit of any member who becomes sick or injured while in the performance of his duty. They have in their treasury nearly $75.00 at the present time, and it is hoped that the citizens will assist them, as they give public dances and entertainments.

The following is the property of the Fire Department:

1 motor combination pump and chemical
1 motor supply truck
1 hand engine and horse-drawn supply wagon
6 Johnson hand pumps
1 small canvas
4 fire axes
2 crowbars
2 large fire hooks
3 20-ft. extension ladders on machines
1 40-ft. extension ladder in ladder house
2 22-ft. single ladders in ladder houses
2 20-ft. single ladders in ladder houses
2 18-ft. single ladders in ladder houses
2 21-ft. single ladders in ladder houses
1 19-ft. single ladders in ladder houses
1 14-ft. single ladder in ladder houses
4 ladder houses, one at West End, one at Center, one at the Neck, one at East End of Town
6 galvanized pails
6 push brooms
2¾ kegs soda
3 gals. sulphuric acid
11 oil coats, some in poor shape
11 oil hats
4 pairs rubber boots
1,250 feet of fire hose, 950 feet in good condition, 300 feet in fair condition
1 Diaphone whistle and equipment
2 pairs driving gloves

13 Cisterns; one at West End schoolhouse, built this year; one at junction of Cedar and Cherry streets, one on Arbor Street opposite School Street, one on Porter Street opposite Perkins Street, one on Larch Row near the H. A Prince house, one at the junction of Larch Row and Walnut Street, neither one in the best of condition, as they leak; one on Larch Row near the W. P. Dodge estate, built this year; one near the house of Fred Batchelder, Main Street, one near the house of Frank Tarr, Main Street, one opposite Town Hall, Main Street, one near the James H. Perkins house, Main Street, one at junction of Main Street and Larch Row, one near the Pingree house, Main Street. There is one on the property formerly owned by the street railway; it can be used. Another small one on Monument Street, opposite the Tea house, but no way to supply it as yet.

25 Chemicals, located as follows: 2 at Addison Williams house, 2 at Town Hall, 1 at Harry Pulsifer's house, 2 at H. E. Durgin's, 5 at Center Schoolhouse, 1 at West End School, 1 at J. Frank Crockett's, 11 at Engine House.

The Engineers hesitate about asking for a large sum this year, but they don't see how it can be run under $1,200. this year, as they are asking for things that are absolutely necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK W. WELCH, Chief.
JOSEPH F. LYNCH.

REPORT OF PARK COMMISSION

The Park Commission organized for the year 1921 by the election of Elbridge R. Anderson as chairman and Randolph B. Dodge as secretary.

The commission held various meetings throughout the year and has kept public places within its jurisdiction in order.

The Pingree Park Field has been laid out for park purposes and six hundred trees of various varieties have been planted in accordance with the plans. These trees were purchased from the Kelsey nurseries under a contract with the commission to replace any of the trees that might die. After these trees were planted a long drought came and a number of the trees died, and these up to 90 per cent will be replaced by the nurseries company under the guarantee contained in the contract, when the weather in the spring shall serve.

The Commission has straightened the northeasterly line of the Pingree Park Field and had the field surveyed. This line was straightened by making a conveyance of all that part of the land in Wenham which lay northeasterly of a straight line drawn from the easterly boundary at Main Street to Porter Street, and receiving in return a triangular piece to the southwest of the said line. A plan was made of the Pingree Park field and the line, and was recorded with the deeds in the Essex South District Registry of Deeds in the plan books kept there. This exchange of land for the purpose of straightening the line was made with Norman Conrad, who owned the triangular piece conveyed to the Inhabitants of the Town of Wenham.

The Commission sold the standing grass on the Pingree Park field for the sum of $75.00, and covered the same into the treasury of the Town, to be held for the Commission's account.

The total expenditures of the Commission for all purposes was seven hundred and thirty-six dollars and twenty cents.

A question has arisen as to the jurisdiction of the Commission over the Town Hall grounds. The Commission claims that those grounds are not within its jurisdiction, but are adjacent to and appurtenant to the Town Hall property, and under the jurisdiction of the Selectmen. The Selectmen, however, have claimed that the grounds about the Town Hall were within the jurisdiction of the Commission, and certain expenditures have been charged against the Commission in the last year for the taking care of the Town Hall grounds. This question should be once and forever settled by a vote of the Town, either declaring that the grounds surrounding the Town Hall are Park grounds, or that they are Town Hall grounds not within the jurisdiction of the Park Commission.

The Commission proposes to level the surface of the Pingree Park field and to prepare the same so that it may be used by the citizens as a playground. This can be done at small expense.

The Commission recommends the appropriation of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) for park purposes for the ensuing year, but if the Town shall decide that the Park Commissioners are to have jurisdiction over the Town Hall grounds, there should be added to the said recommendation the amount of Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00), as it will be seen in the report of 1920 that the park funds were charged $63.39 for the care of the Town Hall grounds.

Respectfully submitted,

ELBRIDGE R. ANDERSON, Chairman.
RANDOLPH B. DODGE, Secretary.
JACOB D. BARNES.

REPORT OF WAR MEMORIAL COMMITTEE

To the Inhabitants of the Town of Wenham.

The War Memorial Committee has continued its labors throughout the year. It has been concluded, after consideration of the whole situation and the financial conditions surrounding the various citizens of the Town of Wenham, that it was not expedient for the Committee to canvass the town as requested by a vote of the Town at the annual town meeting of 1919. In the report of the Committee of last year, the Committee stated to the Town that it believes that at the proper time, when the financial affairs of the country had settled themselves, labor troubles had quieted down, the wage question had been substantially settled, and the prices of building material had become staple, that the town of Wenham would do well to build a Memorial Town Hall along the lines indicated in the report printed in the Town Report of 1920.

The Committee believe, however, that the proper time has not yet come, and recommends that this report should be received as a report of progress and the Committee continued with full powers.

Respectfully submitted,

ELBRIDGE R. ANDERSON, Chairman.
ARTHUR D. PRINCE, Secretary.

SELECTMEN'S REPORT

Not since the incorporation of the town has it taken so much money to meet our expenses.

At the last annual Town Meeting the citizens voted to raise $50,105.36 for our local expenses, and adding to this our state and county taxes made a grand total of $61,225.17, or an average of about $57 for each inhabitant.

A large increase in revenue from outside sources was the only thing that prevented a much larger increase in the tax rate.

The Tax Commissioner has given warning that the income from these outside sources will be much less in 1922 than in 1921.

The large increase in highway expenditures was caused mostly by the work that it was necessary to do on the roads in the eastern part of the town, for so many years taken care of by Mr. Sohier. About 8,000 gallons of oil were used for this work. At a point just beyond Grapevine Bridge the road was widened and the grade raised. Rubbly Road and Essex Street required new gravel. The remainder of the streets were treated with Tarvia, 16,200 gallons being used. 40 barrels of "K. P." tarvia were used for patching.

At the last annual Town Meeting it was voted to petition the Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, for an appropriation of $1,500 from the Motor Vehicle Fees Fund. Upon the formal presentation of the petition it was refused, and a personal visit to the State House by the Chairman of the Selectmen met the same fate, so it was necessary to do the work which had been planned with the town's money.

In accordance with instructions received from the town, we have made a contract with the Beverly Gas & Electric Co. for lighting the streets from August 1, 1921, to August 1, 1926, for $19.50 per light per year. They are to be lighted from "dusk to one o'clock a. m."

Since April 1st the pay for town work has been $3.50 per day for men and $7.00 per day for double team including driver, for a day of eight hours.

As we look back over the year 1921 and the many changes that it brought to the School Department, it would not be unnatural to expect that some confusion might result and that its effect would be detrimental to the work of the schools, but this does not seem to have been the case. At the annual meeting of the Superintendency Union held at the Center School early in April, Superintendent Harvey R. Williams presented his resignation to take effect at the close of the school year. The reluctance with which it was accepted and the unanimous expression of regret by the members present was a genuine tribute to the worth of the man who had served us faithfully and well for eleven years. The public reception tendered to Mr. Williams and family at the Center School on the evening of June 9th, attended by nearly four hundred friends, bears testimony to the place which they occupied in the hearts of the people they had served so long. Mr. Williams goes to enter business in his home town of Foxcroft, Maine, with the best wishes for prosperity in large measure from a circle of friends wider than the five towns which composed his district.

The joint committee deliberated several weeks and interviewed many candidates before deciding upon Mr. Arthur B. Lord of Wayne, Maine, as the man to take up the task of superintending the work of the schools in this district. Mr. Lord comes to us splendidly equipped and with a broad experience. Reports which come to us from all over the district confirm the wisdom of the selection.

As the time approached for the beginning of the fall term, it was found that the registration in the East School would be so small that the committee felt that the interests of all would be better served if that school should be discontinued and all the children be brought to the Center School. The committee were fortunate in being able to make arrangements with Mr. Sidney Prince to transport all of the children of the East and Neck districts and the junior high scholars from the West district by an up-to-date covered motor-bus, to the Center School. We believe that the above arrangement is meeting with quite general approval by the citizens of these districts and has solved a problem that has long been annoying.

The action of the legislature made it necessary to adopt a system of physical exercises and to employ a school nurse. This has been done and the work now being carried on will be explained in the report of the Superintendent.

To establish and maintain a school system according to present day standards requires a large expenditure of money. The manner in which the people of Wenham have met these needs indicates, not only a willingness, but a desire that their schools should equal the best. Your committee takes pride in the work now being done, and in order that the present high standard may be maintained, recommend that the following sums be provided for the current year.

Teacher's salaries,	$10,800 00
Superintendent's salary,	760 00
Traveling expense,	100 00
Janitor's salary,	1,160 00

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

School Committee, Town of Wenham.

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to submit for your consideration my first annual report of the Wenham schools.

GRADING OF PUPILS

We have in the Center school 169 pupils graded as follows:

Grade One,	19
Grade Two,	20
Grade Three,	25
Grade Four,	12
Grade Five,	20
Grade Six,	16
Grade Seven,	17
Grade Eight,	20
Grade Nine,	20
West School,	16

Standard test and measurements have been given which show that the majority of these pupils are placed in the grade best fitted for their needs. The only just method of grading is the placing of individual children in the grade where they can best do the work. If it is found pupils cannot with understanding do the work of the grade in which they are placed the only fair treatment is to put them back and give them more time in the grade below. Other pupils may progress more rapidly and should not be held a year in a grade when less time is required for an understanding of the work. The system of grading must provide for the individual the amount of time he may need for a given amount of work be it a half year, a year, or a year and a half. The tests we are using as measurements have become standardized. They are: The National Intelligence Tests, The Monroe Silent Reading Tests, The McCall-Woody Arithmetic Test, The Dearborn-Peet Progress Tests in Arithmetic, The Trabue Language Scales, The Iowa Spelling Tests, and The Thorndike Penmanship scale.

ATTENDANCE

An education is the most important factor in the life of a boy or girl. They should be made to feel that school should come before all else. The law recognizes only two reasons for non-attendance at school, mental or physical disability.

Children will never realize the importance of school when parents keep them out or allow them to stay out for unnecessary reasons.

From September to December 23rd there were 56 cases of tardiness and a total of 500 days of school were missed by pupils. This record is far better than that of many towns. Among the reasons given in notes from parents were, "week end trip," "to go to the city," "to help at home," "over slept," "clock slow," etc., which would indicate that there is yet a chance for improvement.

How long would a business house stand even such a record as the above by its employees? Yet boys and girls are forming habits which will be with them through life Promptness and regularity are habits worth forming.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Complying with the law passed by the last legislature; and following the lead of the larger towns and cities around us, a school nurse has been employed and Health or Physical Education added to the school program.

In September every child had a physical examination by the school physician assisted by the school nurse. The examination showed the following conditions:

No. of children examined,	177
No. having defective teeth,	44
No. having defective hearing,	1
No. having defective sight,	4
No. having enlarged tonsils or adnoids,	17
No. underweight,	28
No. of miscellaneous defects,	5

The most noticeable defects were "stooped-shoulders," "hollow chests," and underweight or malnutrition. The schools nurse visits the schools one afternoon a week, where she gives health instruction, weighs, measures and examines the children. She also makes many home calls for conference with parents as to the health of their children. Result of the nurse's activities,—

Visits to schools,	23
Visits to homes,	11
Children sent to physician,	6
Children sent to dentist,	35
Children sent to oculist,	1

Of twenty-eight children who were five pounds or more underweight when weighed in October, seventeen show a gain of three to six pounds when weighed in January.

Formal physical exercises designed for physical development and correct posture have been introduced. At recess time a lunch consisting of a half-pint bottle of milk and graham crackers is being sold in the Center School at cost. Some 60 children are buying this lunch.

At noon the domestic science department serves either hot cocoa, soup, or chowder to each child who remains in the building during the lunch hour.

The Red Cross of Hamilton-Wenham conducts every Friday morning a Dental Clinic for school children, at the office of Dr. King. While all school children cannot attend the clinic in the limited time available it is the intention of the Red Cross Committee in charge to take those cases most needing attention from the two towns.

The Modern Health Crusade as a means of forming right habits of diet, sleep, cleanliness and exercise has been introduced. Great interest has been shown by the children, and saner hours of sleep and improved diet have resulted in better school work in many cases.

Out door play for children is a requisite of good health. Every child should be out doors at recess. This play period is supervised by the teachers who make sure all actively participate in some game or exercise.

Statistics prove that city children are more "physically fit" than country children. This improved condition in the cities has been brought about by free clinics, health instruction, district nurses, school nurses, open air schools, free lunches, etc., which have for some years been conducted in the larger cities. These projects have in many cases been looked upon as "fads" by country people and they have been slow in adopting them. Twenty years ago the percentage of physical defects in city children was much greater than among country children. As a result of the health work in cities during the past few years conditions are now just the reverse.

IN GENERAL

Wenham is to be congratulated on having a most excellent building with all the necessary requisites for an efficient school. It is most gratifying to find ample grounds for play and athletics. The work of the school is of a high order. The standards are high and teachers and pupils are doing most excellent work.

Miss Andrews the teacher of Domestic Arts resigned at the close of the fall term. We have been most fortunate in securing the services of Miss Janet Spencer who has had an experience of four years and is proving most efficient in this department.

It is a privilege to serve in a community where the people of the town, the school committee and the teachers all work together with but a single aim, the best interest of the boys and girls.

This report would not be complete without an expression of appreciation of the co-operative work of the Red Cross, Visiting Nurse Association, the Library Trustees, and the Village Improvement Society, all of these agencies having assisted in making the school work effective. To the School Committee and teachers I am indebted for the most cordial and whole hearted support, all of which has made my work in Wenham most pleasant and enjoyable.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR B. LORD,

Superintendent of Schools.

Town Librarian For Thirty-Six Years
DIED DECEMBER 3, 1921

REPORT OF LIBRARY TRUSTEES

The trustees of the Wenham Public Library respectfully submit the thirty-sixth annual report, for the year ending December 31, 1921.

In analyzing the work of the library for the year our attention is called, not to the large number of books added to the shelves, but to the constant and sustained increase in circulation. The total number of volumes circulated, 10416, being a gain of some 3000 over the previous year, and of this total 20% were of non-fiction. This means an average of ten and a half books to a person during the year, a good record and we hope to make it 15 books to a person next year. The present record has been accomplished by trying to take advantage of every opportunity to put the library to use. In the early part of the year, we commenced to open the library at noon, for the convenience of those children coming to school by bus; this noon opening has not only helped increase circulation, but it has made the library a real place, to children living at a distance where one not only sees books, but where one can exercise some sort of choice in their selection. Still another effort to educate toward a more intelligent use of the library, was the offer of the trustees to the school, to conduct a library class for the ninth grade, covering one period a week for four weeks. This offer was accepted, and the class was conducted at the library, with the underlying purpose of introducing to these young people, not only the possibilities of the library, but teaching them the methods by which the library could become a valuable tool in their future education and training.

In the early summer an opportunity came to the trustees to see tried a department of library work well appreciated in larger communities,—the story-telling hour. Miss Ruth Sherbourne of Community Service, each Thursday afternoon of the summer vacation conducted a story telling hour for children under twelve years. The opportunity was greatly enjoyed by the few children who took advantage of it, but the failure of so many to respond to this invitation, would discourage the board in again trying such a summer program. The list of books purchased has been generously added to, by gifts from Mrs. Anna Davis, Mrs. John Wallace, Mrs. Frederic Ayer, Mr. James Neilson, Mrs. Harry Cloyes, and from Dr. John Phillips, a constant benefactor of the library, has come a collection of framed colored prints of water-fowl.

The vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. H. R. Williams, was filled by the appointment of Mr. Arthur B. Lord to fill his unexpired term.

The visit of The Book Caravan, was another event of the summer to stimulate an interest in books. It was visited during its short stay, by old and young, who shared alike the pleasure of seeing and examining the newest and best books.

The subject of binding old magazines, has occasioned much discussion, and an effort has been made to understand the general trend of library thought as to its value. At the present cost of binding, at least $100. a year would be needed to keep up the work. A magazine that is bound cannot be circulated outside the reading room, which at once limits its usefulness, and once bound it is only of casual value; the trustees have decided to continue binding, the Geographic, and St. Nicholas, and to put into active circulation the others, letting them circulate until worn out. This method alone seems to justify a continued large magazine subscription.

In relation to the accumulated magazines to offer them to the public, in bundles of six months for ten to fifteen cents a bundle, and dispose of them as soon as possible to give needed shelf room.

On December 3, occurred the death of Benjamin H. Conant, our librarian of so many years. In respect to his memory, no one has been elected to fill his unexpired term as trustee or librarian. The trustees passed the following resolutions.

"Resolved—that in the death of Benjamin H. Conant the librarian and member of the Board of trustees of the Wenham Public Library, the town, as well as the library has lost a devoted citizen.

Mr. Conant's love for books, and devotion to their care dominated his whole life. He had almost an intuitive knowledge of the books most worth while, which coupled with a remarkable memory, empowered him to give a most unique type of service to all who needed his assistance as librarian.

The passing of Mr. Conant leaves a memory of fidelity, interest and simplicity, and the library has lost not only its librarian but its parent and conservator.

His was a rare spirit, living a life in the world of books, quite apart from the every day world, and to which one only here and there caught a glimpse."

It is no easy problem to know how to best organize the work of the library which has so long been under the management of one person, giving his whole interest to this department. Library work is becoming more and more specialized, and the report was current that this year librarians and assistants would be put under civil service. An opinion was obtained from the commissioner of civil service, that he "did not propose to make such a recommendation during 1922." The commissioner seems to appreciate that generally, trustees are only engaging those having had special training for library work. So that, only the continued maintainance in good faith, of making appointments on the basis of fitness will satisfy the Civil Service Commission."

During the summer of 1921 Miss Mary Batchelder the assistant librarian, took a special library course at Simmons, which gave her an insight into library methods. Miss Batchelder's interest in her work, and her marked adaptability to the work, satisfied the Board that we were fortunate in having an assistant at hand to take up the duties of acting librarian.

That Miss Batchelder is taking advantage of all special training available, shows her qualifying in the only way possible for modern library work.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

Wenham, December 31, 1922.

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

Gentlemen: The Board of Fire Engineers respectfully submit the following report:

The Department answered 11 alarms; 3 for buildings, 7 for grass and underbrush, and 1 for an auto-truck. The buildings were Charles Kimball's house on the Topsfield Road (loss $2,000), a slight fire at Choate Tarr's house (loss $20), and the barn at B. W. Currier's (loss not stated). The seven grass fires did not burn over 5 or 6 acres, with no practical loss.

At the last Town Meeting it was voted to build two fire cisterns. Specifications were sent out to seven contractors and but one bid received. In the best judgment of the contractors, considering the locations, which are in very wet places, and the excessively wet summer, it was not considered that the work could be completed.

The old Hand Engine (Enon No. 1) has been tendered to the Wenham Historical Society and placed under their care for preservation.

The Fireman's Relief Association is in a flourishing condition. The running of a dance and the generous contributions of the people have placed the association on a solid foundation. So far, we are glad to report, no call has been made upon the treasury.

The appropriation has been exceeded, owing to unforeseen expenses (repairs on the motor, purchase of hose, and the high price of fuel). The Engineers feel that an amount equal to that given them to run the department last year is not too much to ask this year.

The following is the property of the Fire Department:

1 motor combination pump and chemical
1 motor supply truck
1 horse-drawn wagon
6 Johnson hand pumps
4 fire axes
2 crowbars
2 large fire hooks
3 20-ft. extension ladders on machines
1 40-ft. extension ladder in ladder house
2 20-ft. single ladders in ladder houses
2 18-ft. single ladders in ladder houses
2 21-ft. single ladders in ladder houses
1 19-ft. single ladder in ladder house
1 14-ft. single ladder in ladder house
4 ladder houses, one at West End, one at Center, one at the Neck, one at East End of town
6 galvanized pails
6 push brooms
½ keg of soda
4 gals. sulphurite acid
15 oil coats
11 oil hats
4 pairs rubber boots
1800 feet of fire house, 1200 feet in good condition, 600 feet in fair condition
1 Diaphone whistle and equipment
2 pairs driving gloves
1 roll-top desk

13 Cisterns; one at West End schoolhouse, one at junction of Cedar and Cherry streets, one on Arbor street opposite School street, one on Porter street opposite Perkins street, one on Larch Row near the H. A. Prince house, one at the junction of Larch Row and Walnut street, neither one in the best of condition, as they leak; one on Larch Row near the W. P. Dodge estate, one near the house of Fred Batchelder, Main street, one near the house of Frank Tarr, Main street, one opposite Town Hall, Main street, one at junction of Main street and Larch Row, one near the Pingree house, Main street. There is one on the property formerly owned by the street railway, it can be used; one near the James H. Perkins house, Main street.

25 Chemicals, located as follows: 2 at Addison Williams' house, 2 at Town Hall, 1 at Harry Pulsifer's house, 2 at H. E. Durgin's, 5 at Center Schoolhouse, 1 at West End School, 1 at J. Frank Crockett's, 11 at Engine House.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS J. LUXTON, Chief.
HORACE A. KILLAM.
EDGAR O. SAWYER.

DRAINAGE COMMITTEE REPORT

To the Citizens of the Town of Wenham:

Your committee chosen to investigate the drainage from Lowe's swamp, after watching the two outlets through the spring, decided that the most practical outlet was via the present pipe running northerly from Friend Court, which was found to be badly clogged, as were also the ditches leading to it.

After consulting your Selectmen, they authorized the expenditure of not exceeding One Hundred dollars ($100) to clear said pipe and somewhat improve said ditches, the Village Improvement Society having volunteered to pay one half.

The expenditure of $63 resulted in lowering the water about fifteen (15) inches.

Your committee feel that a further sum of One Hundred dollars should be appropriated to further improve this unsightly and possibly unhealthy condition.

REPORT OF PARK COMMISSION

To the Inhabitants of the Town of Wenham:

The Park Commission organized for the year 1922 by the election of Elbridge R. Anderson as chairman and Randolph Dodge as secretary.

The Commission has held several meetings and has kept all the public places within its jurisdiction in order.

In the Summer of 1921 the Pingree Field was laid out and trees were planted under a contract with Mr. Harlan Kelsey, in which contract it was provided that if any trees should die after the planting within the year, that the same would be replaced without expense to the Park Commission or the Town of Wenham. A number of the trees so planted did not flourish, and died during the Fall of 1921 and the Spring of 1922, and these trees were replaced by the said Kelsey by new trees, practically all of which have lived.

The Pingree Field was left by the war gardens in a rough and unsightly condition. This condition has been improved and the northerly part of the field smoothed off and sowed down.

A demand arose for a public playground in the Town, and the Field, without expense to the Town, was put into a condition to be used as a baseball field. A diamond was laid out and bases set, and a back-stop was erected and donated by the Village Improvement Society. The Field was used all through the season by all who wished to play thereon, and afforded a great deal of pleasure to the baseball lovers in the Town of Wenham, as well as in our adjoining towns. The Commissioners believe that this was a use to which the donor would have had the field put.

The standing grass on the southerly end of the Field was sold and the money turned into the treasury of the Town, to the credit of the Park Commission.

The total amount of expenditures for park purposes made by the Town was $201.13.

ELBRIDGE R. ANDERSON,
RANDOLPH B. DODGE,
JACOB D. BARNES,

Park Commissioners.

Wenham, Mass., Feb. 8, 1923.

REPORT OF WAR MEMORIAL COMMITTEE

To the Inhabitants of the Town of Wenham:

Your War Memorial Committee begs to submit the following report of its doings and conclusions:

This Committee was created by a unanimous vote of the Town Meeting held on March 3rd, 1919. It was to consist of the Chairman and Secretary of the Board of Selectmen, the Chairman and Secretary of the School Committee, the Chairman and Secretary of the Park Commission as organized for the years 1919 and 1920, and three members to be appointed by the Village Improvement Society. The Committee therefore consisted of Charles H. McQueeny, Arthur D. Prince, Herbert W. Porter, Carl I. Aylward, Elbridge R. Anderson, Randolph B. Dodge, Miss Helen Burnham, Mrs. A. L. Daniels and Mrs. E. B. Cole, the three latter being the appointees of the Village Improvement Society.

The Committee met and organized by the election of Elbridge R. Anderson as chairman and Arthur D. Prince as secretary.

Your Committee, pursuant to the instructions of the Town, advertised and held three public hearings. These hearings were not well attended and there did not seem to be any great public interest in the subject of a Town War Memorial, although at the time of the passage of the vote in the Town Meeting there seemed to be great interest and enthusiasm.

Your Committee reported at the Town meeting held on March 1st, 1920, and at that meeting the Town voted to accept the report of its Committee as a report of progress, and continued the Committee, to consist of the same persons, and authorized the Committee to appoint assistants and to canvass the Town for subscriptions for a Memorial Town Hall, which the Town voted was the most desirable proposition to further consider.

The Town by that vote limited the Committee to the consideration of the proposition of the building of a new Town Hall only, In 1920 the Committee met and considered the instructions of the Town and also the feasibility at that time of procuring definite plans for a Memorial Town Hall and the canvassing of the Town for subscriptions, and concluded that as no appropriation had been made for the procuring of definite plans, that as the financial conditions prevailing in the country were not propitious, it would not put the Town to an unnecessary expense for the procuring of plans for a building that might never be built, and that it would be useless to ask for subscriptions, and reported this in substance to the Town Meeting of 1921.

At the Town Meeting in 1921 an appropriation of $250 was made for the purpose of obtaining definite plans for a new Memorial Town Hall. This money, however, was to be expended if in the opinion of the Committee it was advisable to furnish such plans and specifications at the annual Town Meeting in March of 1922; but the Committee, after fully considering the matter, decided not to furnish plans or to make a canvass for subscriptions because of the financial conditions then existing, and such report was made to the Town Meeting of March, 1922. That report of your Committee was accepted and your Committee was continued for another year, with all the powers conferred upon it theretofore.

During the year 1922 your Committee held two meetings and invited two architects to submit tentative plans and figures for the building of a new Memorial Town Hall. Two architects responded and submitted plans and estimates. Mr. Furber Libby prepared sketches and tentative plans, which were submitted to your Committee and considered. Mr. Libby estimated that a building could be erected in accordance with the plans submitted by him for about $75,000. Mr. Philip Smith, of Wenham, Salem and Boston, also submitted sketches and plans, which were considered by the Committee, and he estimated that the building could be built for about $85,000. Neither set of plans were passed upon by your Committee, and neither were found to be satisfactory.

Your Committee took the plans merely as a basis upon which estimates of the cost to the Town could be figured. These sketches and plans are in the custody of the Committee and will be produced at the next Town Meeting for the inspection of the voters.

Your Committee canvassed certain citizens of the Town who, they believed, might be interested in the erection of such a War Memorial Town Hall for subscriptions, but no subscriptions were made, and the consensus of the people thus canvassed was that they would not and could not subscribe any money for such a proposition.

The Committee reports a few of the opinions:

"My own personal feelings in the matter, which I find are in accord with all with whom I have spoken, are, that it would be inadvisable to embark on this venture."

And again:

"After due consideration, I am of the opinion that any memorial of the type proposed would place an undue burden on the town and the citizens thereof, particularly in view of the fact that the tax rate has been largely increased in the past few years, as well as the valuation of the property in the town. Also, in view of the fact that the war veterans have a very elaborate building, with all the conveniences that they could possibly hope to have, in the Community House of the two towns, which is at their disposal at all times."

And again:

"I would like to protest against this or any other matter calling for an expenditure on the part of the town, as I think we are all burdened with sufficient taxes."

And again:

"If the taxpayers pay any such amount as you specify in your letter, and have to pay for the upkeep of the building after it is completed, it must result in a very substantial raise in the Wenham tax rate, which would be very much regretted."

And again:

"Now I do not want to throw cold water on the recommendation of your Committee, and I have always thought a Town Hall more in keeping with the Colonial architecture of the town would be a fine thing, if we could have it, . . . but I do think it would be very difficult to raise any large contribution just now."

After full consideration, your Committee reports that it is not feasible to proceed further with the project, and submits its report for the consideration of the voters of the Town, who may determine what shall be done: whether they will proceed with the project, or adopt the recommendation of the Committee under the circumstances disclosed in the report.

This Committee has spent no money of the Town in any way, and your Committee asks to be discharged from further service.

ELBRIDGE R. ANDERSON, Chairman,
ARTHUR D. PRINCE, Secretary,
Memorial Committee.

SELECTMEN'S REPORT

As each department of the Town makes its own report for the consideration of the citizens, it seems hardly necessary for us to refer to anything outside of the Highway Department. The amount expended this year for highway repairs is practically the same as in 1921, and we are in hopes that the peak has been reached.

Practically all of the streets have been treated with either tarvia or oil.

Last fall application was made to the State Department of Public Works for assistance in putting Maple Street and a part of Topsfield Road in shape. As these roads had become badly worn because of unusual wear in hauling material for the turnpike, the officials agreed to furnish a steam-roller and equipment and to pay 50% of the cost, but not over $500. From the Topsfield line to the Danvers line on Maple street the road has been upset, graded and rolled, and the town has been reimbursed $499.38. This road will have to be oiled this year.

There are a few miles of other streets which should be treated the same way this year. They have received so many applications of oil that they have become rough, and this is the only way in which they can be made smooth again. Under favorable conditions this work will cost about $500 per mile, outside of the oiling.

During this year we have added to our equipment a mixing machine and a small Ford truck, and the Commonwealth has loaned us a Packard truck and a snow plow.

The inspector of meats and provisions reports that during the year he has inspected 1,696 animals at the licensed slaughter houses.

FOR THE

YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 1922.

1923

REPORT OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE

To the Citizens of the Town of Wenham:

The School Committee respectfully submits the following statement of its activities for the year ending December 31, 1922.

RESOURCES

Town Appropriation,	$22,565 00

EXPENDITURES

High School Tuition,	$4,162 50
High School Transportation,	1,048 24
Industrial Tuition,	179 80
Superintendent's Salary,	750 00
Superintendent's Expense Account,	196 93
Teachers' Salary,	10,839 50
Janitors' Salary,	1,135 70
Health,	233 75
Transportation in Town,	1,984 00
New Equipment,	1,009 68

Fuel,	562 96
Repairs,	380 73
Miscellaneous Expenses,	292 49
		$23,943 74
Overdraft,		$1,379 74

The greater portion of the overdraft indicated in the above statement ($1282.50) was made necessary by a new ruling of the State Board of Education, "That all accounts between different municipalities which have a bearing upon state reimbursements must be settled with the close of each fiscal year." Thus Wenham has, during the last year, paid the city of Beverly $2,700.00 for the last school year and $1,282.50 for the first four months of the current school year. This extra draft was not made until after consultation with the Board of Selectmen who felt that this amount could be handled without the necessity of a special Town Meeting.

The opening of the fall term found fifty-four scholars registered in grades three and four, making it necessary to provide an assistant for these grades, as explained in the report of the Superintendent. Your committee wish to call particular attention to that portion of the Superintendent's report which deals with the reorganization of the work of the Junior High School and the introduction of several new subjects for those students who wish to specialize in the more practical courses. This reorganization has not been accomplished without some additional expense for equipment and teachers, but your committee feel sure that the results that are now being obtained more than justify the small additional expense, and recommend that the following sum be raised and appropriated for the current year:

Teachers' Salaries,	$12,800 00
Superintendent's Salary,	800 00
Superintendent's Travel,	150 00
Janitors' Salaries,	1,125 00
Books and Supplies,	900 00
High School Tuition,	3,900 00
High School Transportation.	1,400 00

Local Transportation,	1,975 00
Health Work,	250 00
Industrial Schools,	300 00
Equipment,	500 00

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the School Committee,

Town of Wenham, Mass.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to submit herewith my second annual report as Superintendent of the Wenham Public Schools.

We have in our schools one hundred and seventy-nine pupils, graded as follows:

Grade 1	18	Grade 6	17
Grade 2	18	First year, Junior High	13
Grade 3	27	Second year, Junior High	13
Grade 4	22	Third Year, Junior High	19
Grade 5	17	West School, Grades 1-5	15

The Teaching Staff

With the close of school in June, Miss Madeline Enslin, who for six years had most loyally and faithfully served Wenham schools, resigned as principal of the Center School. Miss Bessie Buker, a graduate of Gorham Normal School, who has had most successful experience in Maine and Connecticut, was secured for this position. Other new teachers added to the force were: Miss Alice Burnham, for grades three and four, and Miss Mona Baker and Mr. Lawrence Bush in the junior high school. Miss Dorothy Cheney was transferred from the West School to the Center as assistant and coach teacher, there being a registration of fifty-four pupils in grades three and four. Mrs. Charles Connor of Wenham was secured for the West School. We were most fortunate in retaining the services of the Misses M. Eva Whitman, Hilma Gilbert and Bernice Hamblen, all of whom are most valuable members of our teaching force.

The work of the Wenham schools is of a high order. The spirit of service, of co-operation and good fellowship among the teaching group has done much to raise the standard of work and the morale of the school. There is, I am sure, no school in our neighboring towns or cities that will rank higher educationally than the Center School in Wenham.

Junior High School.

The work of the Junior High School was, with the beginning of the school year, reorganized. Printing and Mechanical Drawing were added to the Manual Arts Department, and Mr. Lawrence Bush was engaged to take charge of this work, Mr. Bush also teaching General Science and Ancient History. Miss Clara Waldie continued the work in Freehand Drawing in both the grades and the Junior High. Miss Spencer's efficient work continues in the Domestic Science Department. Sewing is now begun in the sixth grade.

A special course has been added for those boys and girls of the third year to whom the College Preparatory or Commercial courses do not appeal. This work will, from time to time, change to meet the needs of the group electing this course. Credit in Beverly High, in their General Course, is given those who receive a passing rank here.

An elective course in Home Nursing for all girls in the third year was planned, but we were unable to offer the work this year. It will be offered during 1923-24.

The revised course is as follows:

Extra Curricula Activities governed and administerd by the pupils are as follows:

"The Wenham Junior High Breeze," a twelve-page paper, issued monthly, written, edited and printed by the pupils, beginning with the January issue.

Glee Club, meeting weekly.

Debating Club, meeting weekly, holding interclass debates and debating Hamilton, Topsfield and Essex schools.

Athletic Association, for the development of group competition in track baseball and outdoor basketball.

Current Events, Travel, and Nature Clubs, meeting weekly for special study.

Health.

We were most unfortunate in losing Miss Helen Grady, the school nurse, in June. Having three different nurses during the year has been a decided handicap to the health work. It is hoped we can retain Miss Foster and go forward with a constructive program.

Four cases of diphtheria among school children caused considerable uneasiness among parents. The State Department of Health advised keeping the school open and daily inspection by the school physician as the most certain way of preventing a spread of the disease. This advice was followed.

The annual inspection of pupils showed a decrease of nearly 50 per cent in the number of round-shouldered, flat-chested pupils. In the opinion of the school physician this improvement is due undoubtedly to the physical training introduced over a year ago.

The work of the school physician and nurse show the following results:

Number of children examined,	149
Number found having defective tonsils,	15
Number found having defective eyes,	3

Number found having defective teeth,	58
Number of notices sent to parents or guardians,	15
Children's visits to dentist,	69

These statistics are incomplete, as no records of the nurse's activities from September first to December first are available.

The Hamilton-Wenham Red Cross have again made possible the dental clinic, and, as in the past, the accomplishment has been very creditable.

Many physical defects of a correctable nature are yet evident, and parents are urged to confer with the school nurse, with the idea of having the defects remedied.

Attendance.

The attendance of pupils is better than last year; there is, however, considerable opportunity for improvement. Parents, in most cases, are at fault rather than the children. We are anxious to see every child in school every school day, not for the purpose of an attendance record, but that all children may take advantage of the educational opportunities before them.

The following pupils were perfect in attendance during the school year 1921-22:

Helen Aylward	Thorndike Sargent
Eugene Bruce	Dorothy M. Trow
Adelbert Bruce	West School
Natalie Trow	Emma Cummings
Elbridge Preston	Dorothy Page

The law gives the school authorities the right to excuse pupils. For this reason the school department insists on a note from the parent, following the absence of a child, giving the reason for such absence. This is done that they may act intelligently in deciding if excusing the pupil is justified. The number of excuses to be granted, in any one case, except for illness is limited (by law) to seven days in a six months period.

Beverly High School.

We have thirty-five pupils in Beverly High School. It costs Wenham $130 per pupil to keep them there for the school year. In the opinion of the School Committee they would be false to their trust if they did not make every effort to make sure the purpose for which this money is expended is attained.

Arrangements have been made whereby the records of all pupils' work, attendance and deportment are sent regularly to the Committee. The Superintendent of Schools will, under the direction of the Committee, investigate all cases where results are unsatisfactory, and take such measures as seem necessary to bring about improvement.

In General.

The harmony which exists throughout the school system is in no small measure responsible for the excellent progress which is now being made. I am grateful to the members of the Committee for their devoted interest to the school work and their helpful assistance in making the efforts of the Superintendent and of the teaching force effective. The teachers are serving skillfully and their work merits the highest regard of the Committee and of the people.

Respectfully submitted,

A. B. LORD,

No child will be admitted to the first grade at the opening of school in September who will not be five years of age by the first day of October.

Pupils are admitted to this grade only during the first two weeks of school in September, unless they have attended school in some other town.

In accordance with the plan suggested in the last report, a general stock-taking in the library was commenced in the early spring; the old magazines which could not be sold for reading matter were disposed of as waste paper, as were many books too dilapidated to circulate and past mending—these books if still in demand were replaced by fresh copies. There is still much more work of this kind to do, but it seems best to depreciate over a period of two or more years, that too great inroads shall not be made on our total number of volumes and on our apprpriatin for replacement. The library now presents a fresher and more orderly appearance, and fewer dilapidated books are in circulation.

The satisfaction of reporting increased circulation, which has been possible for the last four years, gives place to a report of decreased circulation, which has caused the trustees some anxiety. Several reasons seem to be the contributing causes for this condition. The removal from town of several people who were constant and large patrons of the library, could account for a drop of from fifty to sixty books a month. The Thursday evening opening, occurring on the same night as the motion pictures, showed a drop in evening attendance; to obviate this the evening was changed to Tuesday. A third reason was the accumulation of fines; at one time 35 cards were idle because of unpaid fines, large or small. A system of postal reminders has now been started, notifying the borrower when books are overdue three days, hoping thus to help library patrons to avoid such fines and give them more continuous use of the library. This year $69.94 has been collected in fines, and though it becomes available to purchase more books, it bespeaks a carelessness we would like to help people to avoid. This decreased circulation seems only to have been temporary, as it has been increasingly better the last three months, and in December larger than last year.

The increased cost of administration, as well as the increased cost of books, make the appropriation, when it is divided into the various departments of readers' needs, small for each division, though the town has been most generous in increasing the total each year. The appropriation must be shared by the juvenile and by non-fiction readers; the town, small though it is, has the same groups of readers interested in different types of reading and study as has the larger community, and each small group rightly expects something new for their special interest each year; books of travel, biography, science, history, religion, and the arts must be added, though few in each division, if we are to stand as a real library. The books that these non-fiction readers wish, though purchased in fewer numbers, are more expensive, but they are the books of permanent value and make the backbone of the library as a distributing force in education and culture, for which fundamentally libraries are maintained by public moneys. The addition to the fiction list is not as large as heretofore, though the same proportion of the appropriation has been spent, because we have not received as many books by gift. The death of Mrs. Neilson of New Jersey, a long-time friend of the library, has lost to us a splendid collection of new books which she yearly sent. The circulation of the magazines gives an appreciable variety to the fiction readers, as much good fiction is found in every magazine at a comparatively small cost.

Gratitude should be expressed to Mrs. Frederick Ayer and Mrs. Keith McCloud who have been thoughtful donors of pictures and books. Special appreciation should be given to our trustee, Mrs. Davis, who generously assisted the substitute librarian during the vacation of Miss Batchelder.

When the present library room was furnished, it was thought it would suffice the needs of the library for fifteen years. That forecast has proven true, and the time is approaching when the Town must plan for increased space for the continued growth of the library. Gifts of valuable photographs and prints and valuable editions are now in storage, lacking space for suitable display; the shelf room for books in constant circulation will in another two years be entirely used.

For the purchase of books and the administration of the library the trustees ask for $1,220.

Respectfully submitted,

ADELINE P. COLE,

Chairman.

Voted to take up Articles 7 and 8 (Painting, Redecorating and Improving Town Hall Building).

Committee reported that they had received the three required bids only on the installation of the Metal Ceiling and painting of the same, which contracts they had awarded; for painting the outside of the building they had received but one bid; and that no bids were made on the Repair work.

Voted that the Committee be empowered to award contracts where any bids had been made, and that the necessary repairs be made under their supervision.

Voted to take up Article Ten (Building for storage of equipment of Highway and Moth Departments).

Committee reported as follows:—

"When the article pertaining to this matter was placed in the warrant for the Annual Town Meeting, it was not known that so much money would be required to meet the regular needs of the Town. But when we consider the large amount of money which has already been appropriated to be paid this year, it seems inadvisable to add any more to the tax rate at this time. Consequently no serious consideration has been given to any proposition. At least three propositions have been suggested, namely, the purchase of land on Cherry Street belonging to J. D. Barnes; 2nd, using land now owned by the Town on Perkins Street; 3rd, leasing some buildings for a term of years, which with some minor changes might answer the needs for a time. We recommend that the whole matter be referred to the next Annual Town Meeting.

Respectfully submitted

CHESTER S. COOK,
ARTHUR D. PRINCE,
FRANK W. WELCH,
JACOB D. BARNES."

Voted—That the report be accepted and the recommendation of the Committee adopted, namely that the matter be referred to the next Annual Meeting.

Voted—That this meeting be dissolved.

ROSCOE B. BATCHELDER,
Town Clerk.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

Wenham, December 31, 1923.

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

Gentlemen: The Board of Fire Engineers respectfully submit the following report:

The Department answered 21 alarms, 11 for grass and underbrush, 3 chimney fires, 2 for buildings, 2 auto trucks, 2 out of town, and 1 needless alarm. The only fire which caused any loss was the former B. F. Young house, and that was very little.

The Department have constructed one fire cistern. It is located near the junction of Grape Vine Road and Hull Street. Notwithstanding the excessively dry summer, the workmen struck a spring which flowed up through the whole bottom, 20 feet by 10 feet, and caused much extra expense. A pump capable of pumping 1000 gallons a minute was used through a greater part of the time so that the men could work. We now have what appears to be an inexhaustible supply in that cistern.

Owing to lack of funds we could not build the cistern called for near Burley Street and Maple Street, so must ask for an extension to the original appropriation. The Department also ask for an appropriation for a cistern near the junction of Cherry Street and Pleasant Street. There are a goodly number of houses and barns and other buildings in this neighborhood which at present are very inadequately covered.

The appropriation was not all used, a small amount being left which can be carried as an unexpended balance to help out on the coming year. The Engineers ask for the same amount this year that has been granted to them for the past two years.

The Fireman's Relief Association can now be called a success and the Department wishes to thank the citizens of the town for their encouragement of the Association, and also of the Department.

The Department has disposed of the horse-drawn vehicle, although receiving but a small sum for it ($35). It was not a horse, but was slowly eating itself up by rent for storage.

The following is the property of the Fire Department:

1 motor combination pump and chemical
1 motor supply truck

REPORT OF PARK COMMISSION

To the Inhabitants of the Town of Wenham, Massachusetts:

The Park Commission organized for the year 1923 by the election of Elbridge R. Anderson as Chairman, and Randolph B. Dodge as Secretary.

The Commissioners held several meetings and kept all public places within its jurisdiction in order.

It became necessary during the year to renew certain of the trees upon the Pingree Field that had been planted in the summer of 1921, and certain of the trees that were planted in the fall and spring of 1922 that were replaced by Mr. Kelsey free of charge to the Town.

The number of trees so renewed was seventy-three. The Commissioners spent for the seventy-three trees, the planting of the same, and the care of the public places in its jurisdiction, the sum of One Hundred Eighty-three Dollars.

During this year the baseball field, without expense to the Town, has been leveled and put into excellent condition, and was used throughout the season by all who wished to play baseball and other games thereon, thus continuing the use to which the donor desired to have the field put.

ELBRIDGE R. ANDERSON,
JACOB D. BARNES,
Park Commissioners.

Dated, February 4, 1924.

SELECTMEN'S REPORT

The year 1923 has been unusual, in that such large sums of money have been necessary to maintain the different departments of the Town, and in only two instances, "highways" and "incidentals," has more money been spent than the Town authorized. In these two accounts it seemed unavoidable to overdraw.

Of the large amount spent for snow work, $545.00 is for equipment, which will not have to be replaced this year.

We were able to obtain an outfit from the State Department of Public Works for upsetting and regrading parts of the following streets: Topsfield Road, Larch Row, Dodge's Row, Grapevine Road, Rubbly Road, and Essex Street. We have also received $400.00 from the Commonwealth toward oiling Topsfield Road and Maple Street.

Application has already been made to the State Department for the use of their outfit this coming season, and application has also been made to the County Commissioners for financial help in upsetting and re-shaping of about a mile of Larch Row.

Arrangements have been made with the Salem and Beverly Water Supply Board, whereby we can obtain material from their pit on Larch Row.

We have added an outfit for loading gravel to our equipment this year, and if the plans as suggested can be carried out, we ought to be able to get along with a smaller appropriation for 1924.

The work which was done on the sidewalks is included in the highway expenses.

The repairs on the Town Hall building have been made as authorized by the Town, and seem to have met with general approval.

ARTHUR D. PRINCE,
FRANK W. WELCH,
Selectmen of Wenham.

It is with satisfaction that your Committee is able to submit this report showing a substantial balance on hand, feeling as they do that the same high standard has been maintained throughout the school and that the school plant has not been allowed to suffer.

Again we have to record the necessity of a change in superintendents. Mr. Lord having resigned in April to accept an important position in the State Department of Education, the district committee, after interviewing several available candidates, voted to engage Mr. John D. Whittier, of Burlington, Vt., as its superintendent.

Mr. Whittier comes to the position splendidly equipped for the work having had long experience as teacher, superintendent, and several years as Supervisor of Elementary Education for the State of Vermont. Your Committee felt that the school was so well organized that no radical changes were necessary, and the work of the school was not interrupted.

The Committee recommends that the following sums be appropriated for the maintenance of the schools for the ensuing year:

Teachers' salaries,	$13,000 00
Superintendent's Salary,	800 00
Superintendent's travel and expense,	150 00

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the School Committee of Wenham.

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to present herewith my first annual report of the schools of Wenham.

The world and national conditions at the present time constitute a challenge to all institutions and especially to the educational institutions, of which the public schools are a large part. So much prejudice, snap judgment and unreasoning mob activity menace all institutions that it behooves the schools to develop a high standard of intelligence as a foundation for judgment and action. To quote from Dr. Bagley, one of the foremost educators in our country: "The development of democracy has been unquestionably towards the elevation of the common man to a position of supreme collective control. It is now, as has never been before, a race between education and annihilation. If education is to save civilization, it must lift the common man to new levels, and not so much to new levels of industrial efficiency as to new levels of thinking and feeling."

Every school system worthy of public support should accept this challenge. Neither taxpayer nor teacher should regret the opportunity of working for and with the boys and girls, to train them to think straight, to glorify work, and to attain a type of leadership in which all people may find satisfaction, peace and confidence.

The ideals and objectives of education seem to be well established in the minds of those who are associated together for the training of the youth of our country.

May I quote the purpose of education in a democracy from the National Educational Association: "So to organize society that each member may develop his personality primarily through activities designed for the well being of his fellow-members and of society as a whole. Education in a democracy, both within and without the school, should develop in each individual the knowledge, interests, ideals, habits and powers whereby he will find his place and use that place to shape both himself and society toward ever nobler ends."

A recent report by a committee to outline the Aims in Education, states that they should be as follows:

I. Health.
II. Command of Fundamental Processes.
III. Worthy Home Membership.
IV. Vocation.
V. Citizenship.
VI. Worthy Use of Leisure Time.
VII. Ethical Culture.

Health.

It is worth while noting that health is placed at the head of the list, and undoubtedly will receive much attention during the next few years.

No school system can hope to attain a high standard of efficiency which neglects the health of its school children. All handicaps to health should first be overcome, that we may then expect a reasonably high grade of work on the part of the pupils.

The School Committee of this town has for some time been employing a school physician to conduct the physical examination of pupils. The results of this year's examination will be found elsewhere in this report.

For some time this town has co-operated with the Community Nurse Association in providing some funds for the Association, for which the town has had part-time service of the Community Nurse. At the beginning of this school year it seemed advisable to the Committee to inaugurate a bigger piece of health work than was possible to carry out in the time at the disposal of the Community Nurse for school work.

After considering several candidates for the position, Miss Helen E. Purdy, R. N., was secured for the work of School Nurse in the towns of Essex, Hamilton, Lynnfield and Wenham. She devotes two days weekly to the town of Hamilton and one day weekly to each other town. Miss Purdy is well fitted for this important position and is doing a commendable piece of work. I commend her report for your consideration and bespeak for her the co-operation of all parents and others interested in the welfare of the children. It would seem that in this, as in no other branch of school work, those having the work in charge need the fullest co-operation to bring the work up to its highest degree of efficiency.

In addition to the work of the school physician and school nurse, the following is being done to bring the health of our children up to standard.

Milk is provided for lunch or a warm dish is furnished at noon.

Directed physical exercise in the open air or in class room.

Competitive work on playground.

Examinations by specialists for those physically or mentally retarded.

Examination of all children by the school dentist.

Dental clinic work is being carried on through co-operation with the Hamilton-Wenham Red Cross.

Fundamental Subjects.

From the early establishment of schools much stress has been given to the three R's. From results of daily work and examination reaching the superintendent there yet seems to be a necessity of stressing these subjects.

Several standardized tests in the more important subjects of the curriculum have been given and will be followed by others after teachers have had sufficient opportunity to profit in their work following the first tests. Thus it will be noted that we are using the tests: to learn where we stand in our work; to improve upon the poor work; to bring our schools up to as high a standard of efficiency as possible.

Worthy Home Membership.

Worthy Home Membership calls for the development of those qualities that make the individual a worthy member of the family, that he may benefit and be benefitted thereby. It has a bearing upon their present-day living as well as upon their future. It is said that "Character is determined by our habits and ideals." That our boys and girls may have the right character, it befalls upon every teacher and parent to train them in right habits and ideals. The work is of such a nature that no one agency can do it all, and none should shirk its duty.

It is a mistaken idea that "You can earn your living without work if you get an education." We should instill in our pupils' minds the need of an education to make them more profitable members of society. We should not hesitate to require a certain amount of manual work from every school child about the home, for not to do so has a tendency to discourage work on his part, and thereby leads him to believe that he should substitute education, now and hereafter, for work.

Vocation.

All school systems are more and more endeavoring to give attention to pupil guidance, whether of an educational or vocational nature. One of the severe criticisms made upon our present day system of education is that pupils go through the schools without having decided for what they wish to fit themselves. It is the purpose of our system, in so far as possible, through regular classes, assemblies and teacher contact with pupils, to guide the pupils in their study to fit them for their particular vocation. This work will be greatly broadened in scope in the near future.

Citizenship.

In our history and civics classes we seek to develop ideals of good citizenship. It is not sufficient that the pupil simply study such a subject as civics and thereby expect that he will mature into a full grown citizen at the conclusion of such a course. It is necessary that the pupil assume certain responsibilities, which may be for his own personal advantage, for the advantage of his class, school or town. The pupil should be led to feel that he is not always to receive compensation for such services rendered, but that he performs certain services for the group of which he is a member. Whenever the opportunity presents itself for such pupil participation in the school organization we endeavor to give him the opportunity to participate.

Worthy Use of Leisure Time.

Authorities having made a study of youth and gang instinct have very plainly pointed out the fact that every boy and girl needs wholesome play to counteract the spirit of lawlessness. Our boys and girls are no exception. It is not the child's fault that he finds enjoyment in unwholesome surroundings, if he has not been taught otherwise. It is the duty of the school system to so direct the leisure time of the child that he will look for and enjoy wholesome activities within his immediate surroundings.

The teachers are giving their very best efforts to interest the pupils in play activities, in and out of school, to interest them in reading of the best literature, and to find enjoyment in doing of worth-while things. In this work there is opportunity for parental participation in providing suitable stimuli for their boys and girls when not in school. Such stimuli may be a well equipped playground or gymnasium, a reading-room well supplied with the latest books of reference and current magazines, a well organized and directed social program.

Ethical Culture.

Our last objective to be considered, is the development of a strong ethical character. Our emphasis in this should be of a moral nature which should tend to develop a better class of employers, employees, professional men, artisans and merchants. In teaching the ethics of business life and good citizenship, emphasis needs to be laid upon common honesty. Our boys and girls of this generation are no different than those of generations past, but their surroundings are much different, and therefore the demand for a change in methods in shaping the minds of them.

The strong personalities and moral characters of leaders in our community life will train up a generation which will go far in changing the many social problems which are perplexing us in this present generation.

Education Week.

The following is quoted from the Report of the Commissioner of Education of the United States: "Education in the United States is controlled by the people and not by the Government. Every citizen has a voice in determining what kind of schools we shall have. The people determine in the ultimate analysis how much shall be spent upon the schools, whence the money shall come, what kind of teachers we shall have, etc. Naturally, experts and educators know a great deal more about schools than do the average citizens; but, eventually, we cannot make much sound and permanent progress in the improvement of schools without an intelligent approval and support of public sentiment."

With the above in mind, the National Bureau of Education, the National Education Association, and the American Legion cooperated in carrying out the following Education Week program: Sunday, Nov. 18, For God and Country; Monday, American Citizenship Day; Tuesday, Patriotism Day; Wednesday, School and Teacher Day; Thursday, Illiteracy Day; Friday, Equality of Opportunity Day; Saturday, Physical Education Day. Through carrying out this program in the schools an attempt was made to focus the minds of the teachers, pupils and school patrons on the needs and objectives of the schools. It is hoped that by the observance of Education Week annually we may secure "a larger and more united effort in behalf of our schools."

West School.

The West School was discontinued at the close of school in June. The pupils are now transported to the Center School, where they are having the many school advantages which could not be provided them at a reasonable cost previously.

Teachers.

At the close of the school in December, Miss M. Eva Whitman resigned her position as teacher of Grades I and II, to be married. All those associated with her in the work regretted her leaving the profession. The position made vacant has been filled by Miss Florence G. Middlebrook, who is a teacher of excellent training and experience.

We have been fortunate in retaining the services of the other teachers and should, in so far as justified, by increases in salary, endeavor to retain their services the ensuing year.

Professional Improvement of Teachers.

Teaching is a profession which is continually changing its standards and without doubt changes as much, if not more, than any other in the same period of time.

That our teaching force may be kept up to as high a degree of efficiency as possible, it is desirable that we encourage and when necessary require that our teachers take the necessary steps to improve themselves professionally.

Improvement may be obtained as follows: extended travel, summer school courses, Saturday courses, extension courses, correspondence courses, and by extensive reading on definite topics as related to the school work.

It is of interest to note that our teachers have endeavored to improve themselves professionally as follows:

One teacher took a Summer Course.
One teacher took Saturday Courses.
One teacher took Extension Courses.
One teacher took private lessons.

The spirit of the teachers in taking this work is very commendable and should be given consideration by the Committee when reappointments are in order.

School Savings.

The system of school savings which has been carried on in the schools for several years, in co-operation with the Salem Savings Bank, was changed at the opening of school in September. The system previously in use entailed considerable bookkeeping work on the part of the pupils and teachers which seemed unnecessary. The Center School is now equipped with an Automatic Receiving Teller, in which pupils deposit their money and obtain stamps of the several denominations to stick in their folder. The school deposits since January 1, 1923, have amounted to $381.48.

Your attention is called to the following statistics taken from the Annual Reports of the Department of Education.

† Instruction furnished in other towns and cities for Grades 10-12.

Table I—Shows that the average for increases in expenditures during the last three years in Wenham compares favorably with that throughout the state.

Table II—Shows a drop in valuation per pupil in net average membership during the past two years. This can probably be due to the fact that during these years our enrollment has been increased by organization of the Junior High.

Table III—Shows that there has been a steady increase in expenditure as well as in rate of total tax per $1,000 valuation.

Table IV—Shows that the cost per pupil in average membership for Grades 1-8 has materially advanced during the last three years. The expenditures for high school instruction shows a decrease in cost per pupil in average membership, which is probably due to retaining the ninth grade in the local Junior High.

Table V—Shows that Wenham has provided well for its pupils in Grades 1-8. The cost for grades 10, 11 and 12 is lower than for similar work in other towns, as most of the pupils of these grades attend Beverly High School, where the expense is less for tuition and transportation than the cost would be for maintaining a high school in town for these grades.

The question is often asked: "Can we afford to spend so much for education?" Mr. H. G. Wells, in "The Outline of History," says: "The essential factor in the organization of a living state, the world is coming to realize, is the organization of an education." The question then naturally arises, "Can we afford not to spend so much for education?"

Massachusetts is dependent upon its educational system to enable her industries to prosper in competition with states having greater natural resources. Therefore, the educational systems throughout the Commonwealth should be supported in carrying out an educational program worthy of the state which was a pioneer in providing free public schools.

School Needs.

Playground equipment.

Additional books for the school library. The greatest need is for reference books.

A new piano for the assembly room.

The abandoned school property in the outlying districts should be disposed of while it has a value and before it becomes an eyesore to the town.

Parents of pupils attending schools out of town are urged to require more home study on the part of their pupils if reports from the schools attended show failures or that their pupils are on the border line of failure. There are altogether too many failures among the pupils attending schools outside of town.

May I at this time express to the School Committee, the teaching force, and patrons of the schools, my appreciation for the hearty co-operation in carrying out the educational program for the town.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN D. WHITTIER,
Union Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF PRINCIPAL OF WENHAM JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Mr. John D. Whittier, Superintendent of Schools,
Wenham, Mass.

Dear Sir: Aside from the regular courses offered the pupils of the Wenham Junior High School, the School has several organizations whose administration develops in the pupils responsibility and leadership.

During 1923-24, the Glee, Nature, Athletic and Debating Clubs continued their work of the previous year, while in place of the Travel Club and the Current Events Club the pupils chose Radio, Dramatic and Sewing Clubs.

At various times during the year the townspeople have had opportunity to note progress in the work of the school. On February 20, parents and friends of the pupils were invited to observe the regular school work. An exhibit from all grades and departments was arranged in the Assembly Hall. During Education week another visiting day was held, a large number of people showing their interest by attending.

The Debating Club has held many interesting debates. Each member has taken part in at least one of these debates, thereby gaining confidence in speaking before others. The question, "Resolved, That moving pictures do more harm than good," was debated with Topsfield Junior High, March 30, the decision being awarded to Wenham.

The school committees of this district, comprising Wenham, Hamilton, Essex, Topsfield and Lynnfield, held their annual meeting in Wenham, April 9. The Domestic Science Department of the Wenham Junior High served a six o'clock dinner.

On April 13, the pupils gave a public entertainment. With the proceeds a stereopticon was purchased for use in the school.

A track meet, held on the Wenham School grounds, June 16, aroused much interest in school athletics. A number of the boys received school letters for participation in this meet.

The Sewing Club gave a bazaar and entertainment on December 19, from which fifty dollars was realized. This money was sent to the North Shore Babies' Hospital, Salem.

The Wenham Junior High School Breeze, which was first issued in December, 1922, is still being published. Both boys and girls seem eager to do their share in contributing articles for this paper.

In conclusion, on behalf of the school, I wish to thank you, the members of the School Committee, and other interested citizens, for the support and co-operation which have never been found wanting.

Respectfully submitted,

BESSIE M. BUKER,

January 22, 1924. Principal.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL NURSE

Mr. John D. Whittier, Superintendent of Schools,
Wenham, Mass.

Dear Sir: I herewith submit my annual report for the Town of Wenham.

The work of the School Physician and School Nurse show the following results:

Number of children examined,	173
Number found having defective teeth,	115
Number found having defective tonsils,	11
Number found having defective eyes,	7
Number found having defective ears,	1
Number of notices sent to parents or guardians,	141
Children's visits to dentist,	39
Children taken to hopsital,	6

The Hamilton-Wenham Red Cross has again made possible the Dental Clinic, and, as in the past, the accomplishment has been very creditable.

Many physical defects of a correctable nature are yet evident, and parents are urged to confer with the school nurse with the idea of having these defects remedied.

Hygiene talks have been given in all grades, stressing those things necessary to health, stressing the prevention of disease, rather than the cure.

A hot dish is being served at noon to children carrying lunches, and a considerable number are also taking milk at recess.

Respectfully submitted,

HELEN E. PURDY, R. N.,
School Nurse.

REPORT OF DRAWING SUPERVISOR

To the Superintendent of Schools.

Dear Sir: The drawing course this year has been carried out along definite lines, with a definite aim in view, namely:

Objective.

My aim in teaching art in the schools is to stimulate a keen sense of observation for beauty by appreciating the forms and color in nature and art; to improve house furnishings, furniture and dress; and to teach pupils to appreciate the beautiful things of life as well as to use art as a means of expressing themselves freely. This may be accomplished by the following outline:

Representation.

Making pictures, general shapes, perspective, and position of the parts of the body. (Nature drawing included.)

Design.

a. To recognize the laws of order in nature and art.
b. Lettering.
c. Color.

Construction.

To develop habits of:
a. Creating in material.
b. Accuracy.
c. Hand skill.
d. Following directions.

The work has so far gone along very successfully. It is a great pleasure to deal with pupils who manifest such an interest in their work. In the first and second grades the pupils like it so much that it is certainly encouraging to work with them. The third and fourth grades as a rule are extremely interested and they are willing to try anything. If the problem is of interest to the fifth and sixth grades, they will co-operate in the work.

In closing, I wish to extend my sincere thanks to teachers, pupils and school officials for their co-operation in my work.

Respectfully submitted,

MADELEINE S. HOPKINS,

Supervisor of Drawing.

REPORT OF THE MUSIC SUPERVISOR

To the Superintendent of Schools,
Wenham, Mass.

Dear Sir: In response to your request for a brief report of my work, I submit the following:

The small allotment of time given to music study in the public schools at the present time makes it imperative that the work shall be of an intensive nature, with every moment used to its best advantage in establishing an appreciation of the best in music, and giving the pupils the ability to read music at sight and to interpret it with intelligence.

With this aim in view, the work has been planned.

The singing in the first grade consists of rote songs of great variety, which introduces the sight reading begun in the second grade.

This year we have been using "Introductory Music," one of Ginn's newest books, an illustrated song book in which the children find great pleasure.

Singing in parts begins in the third grade and is continued through the upper grades, where many three-part songs are learned.

We have a Glee Club in the Junior High which is doing good work and in the lower grades choruses have been formed, composed of the most earnest and efficient workers, thus giving an incentive for greater effort. We are also planning to form a school orchestra.

The Victrola has proved a great help in music appreciation and as a means of illustrating the works of the great composers.

I am glad to report an increasing interest in the study of music on the part of the pupils this year, and, in closing, I wish to express my sincere appreciation of your interest and support in the work, and also of the faithful and efficient work of the teachers.

Respectfully submitted,

BESSIE CLEAVELAND,
Music Supervisor.

REPORT OF LIBRARY TRUSTEES

The Trustees of the Public Library respectfully submit the Report of the Library for 1923.

The year has been one of activity and readjustment in library work. The crowded condition of the shelves made it necessary to devise some means of rearrangement which should give temporary relief. By consultation with Miss Jones of the State Library Commission, we were able to dispose of public documents which we had formerly been required to keep; in addition, many very worn copies were discarded. This general house cleaning, which totaled 543 volumes retired, made some room, but more was obtained by the rearrangement of the stacks, by which juveniles were assembled on the well lighted side of the library, with reading tables and a delivery desk, making a children's corner, a change agreeable alike to adults and children.

The filling of the entire side wall with new stacks, now accomplished by the generous offer of our trustee, Dr. Smart, who built the stacks, filling the very last inch of workable wall space with shelves. The librarian, Miss Batchelder, is deserving of great credit for her rearrangement of the books. When suitable electric fixtures are installed, the immediate needs of the library for stack room will be satisfied for the next two years. This present expedient does not provide for growth, enlarged service, or suitable working conditions. Such needs might be met by a one-story fireproof structure in the rear; this may become a realization to some future Board of Trustees.

After the discarding of the absolutely hopeless books, the trustees started a mending program to prolong the life of each book. Miss Tillinghast, an expert in the science of mending, was engaged for a week to carry on a practical demonstration and teaching course. The program outlined involved not only general mending but a weekly "stitch in time." The librarian finds that to keep the books in condition requires more time than is available, unless books are put out of circulation to await their turn, which is manifestly inefficient. The trustees accordingly have arranged for an assistant whose duties shall be to take charge of the delivery desk in the children's department on Thursdays and assist in the mending one afternoon a week; this assistant first serving an apprenticeship to learn her duties and demonstrate her fitness.

At the close of school in June, children from the third to the ninth grade were encouraged to take the State Reading Course, and twenty-five received certificates at the close of vacation. The trustees gave a party for these children, when they enjoyed the novelty of a puppet show. Mr. Lord made the children feel that they had accomplished something worth while in winning the certificates, which Dr. Smart gave to the following children:

An effort has been made throughout the year to familiarize more people with the resources of the library. Books on timely subjects have been assembled for easy reference, and two exhibitions of special interest have been held: one, an exhibition of Egyptian relics, with a special talk on Egypt to the history class of Junior High. The second exhibition, held in conjunction with the Historical Association, an exhibition of old books and manuscripts for three days in April, was well attended, and the Sunday opening enabled a still larger number to attend. Records, broadsides, old papers and letters relative to the town, church, school and private citizens, were of such varied interest as to make it seem worth while to the Historical Association to catalog for permanent reference.

An examination of the librarian's statistical report will reveal a few pertinent facts. The increased circulation shows an average of ten books to every inhabitant. The variance in the distribution of fiction and non-fiction in different parts of the town is interesting. At Central Library, eight fiction to one non-fiction; at Neck Library, five fiction to one non-fiction; at East Wenham, forty-nine fiction to one non-fiction.

Dr. Phillips has again generously remembered the library of his home town by the gift of the second volume of his book on "A Natural History of Ducks."

Gifts of pictures and art objects have been declined, as we had neither the place to display them, or even to store them.

The trustees received with regret the resignation of Miss Ruth Prince. Miss Prince has served the library as trustee for fifteen years,—twelve years as its faithful secretary. When the library was moved into the present room, Miss Prince gave generously of time and strength for many months to assist in putting the library on a modern working basis, a work for which there was no appropriation and for which the town felt no need. Such volunteer service has helped the library to its present efficiency on the modest yearly appropriation.

The Trustees submit the following budget for the ensuing year:

Administration,	$500 00
Books,	600 00
Transportation,	20 00
Incidentals,	80 00
	$1,200 00

AN APPRECIATION

It is with deep regret that the undersigned members of the Board of Trustees of the Wenham Public Library note the retirement of Mrs. Adeline P. Cole as a library trustee.

Mrs. Cole became a trustee in 1909. During the fifteen years of her service she has studied all branches of library work. Little by little she introduced new methods, often at her own expense. It is through her leadership that our Board has had the broadest co-operation with schools, churches and other organizations. Her aim has been unbiased service and complete self-effacement.

We wish hereby to express our appreciation of her service as a trustee.

ANNA M. DAVIS,

FIRE DEPARTMENT

Wenham, Mass., Dec. 31, 1924.

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

Gentlemen: The Board of Fire Engineers respectfully submit the following report.

The Department has answered twenty alarms, eight for grass and forest fires, one chimney fire, three for buildings, one for auto truck, one for automobile, two still alarms, and four out of town calls for assistance.

The Department has constructed one fire cistern, which is located on Maple Street near Burley Street. Owing to heavy rains, it is not quite complete. The appropriation is exceeded. This is owing to a very large payroll for fighting fires, the payroll being nearly three times as much as last year, which was considered quite large. The engineers feel that a larger appropriation is needed to carry on the Department, and ask that the sum of $1,600 be granted for the ensuing year.

The following is the property of the Fire Department:

1 motor combination pump and chemical
1 motor supply truck
2 Johnson hand pumps
4 fire axes
2 crowbars
2 large fire hooks
3 20-ft. extension ladders on machines
1 40-ft. extension ladder in ladder house
2 20-ft. single ladders in ladder houses
2 18-ft. single ladders in ladder houses
2 21-ft. single ladders in ladder houses
1 19-ft. single ladder in ladder house

6 snow shovels
1 14-ft. single ladder in ladder house
4 ladder houses, one at West End, one at Center, one at the Neck, one at East End of town
6 galvanized pails
11 oil hats
6 brooms
1 keg of soda
2 gals. sulphuric acid
10 oil coats
4 pairs rubber boots
1,600 feet of fire hose, 1,000 feet in good condition, 600 feet in fair condition
1 Diaphone whistle and equipment
2 pairs driving gloves
1 roll-top desk
2 electric lanterns
Forms for concrete work to the value of $142

Fifteen Cisterns: one on Maple street near Burley street, one at West End schoolhouse, one at junction of Cedar and Cherry streets, one on Arbor street opposite School street, one on Porter street opposite Perkins street, one on Larch Row near the H. A. Prince house, one at the junction of Larch Row and Walnut street, neither one in the best of condition, as they leak; one on Larch Row near the W. P. Dodge estate, one near the house of Fred Batchelder, Main street, one near the house of Frank Tarr, Main street, one opposite Town Hall, Main street, one at junction of Main street and Larch Row, one near the Pingree house, Main street, one near the junction of Grape Vine Road and Hull street. There is one on the property formerly owned by the street railway, it can be used; one near the James H. Perkins house, Main street.

Twenty-four Chemicals, located as follows: two at Addison Williams' house, two at Town Hall, one at Harry Pulsifer's house, two at H. E. Durgin's, five at Center schoolhouse, one at J. Frank Crockett's, eleven at Engine House.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF PARK COMMISSION

The Park Commission was organized with Elbridge R. Anderson as Chairman and Randolph B. Dodge as Clerk.

The Commission has carried on its usual work in the town and has taken care of all of the open spaces and kept them trimmed and in order.

In addition thereto it has procured the cleaning of the soldiers' monument on the Main Street, has bought and set out in the Pingree Park land twenty-two Banksienna pines and twenty-five maples. These trees were put in to take the place of trees that had died.

The Commission desires to report that the trees planted by the Commission on the Pingree Field are all doing well and are beginning now to make a good showing. In order to properly care for the said trees they have been dug around and grass removed from about the trunks. This was done at the earnest solicitation and request of Mr. Harlan Kelsey, who advised the Commission that by so doing the trees would have a much more rapid growth.

The Commission had on hand at the end of the fiscal year 1923 $191.80. The Town appropriated at the Town Meeting in 1924, $100.00 additional, making in all $291.80. The Commission has spent for the various items above referred to the amount of $289.40, and had a balance on hand January 1st, 1925, of $2.40.

There are various operations that the Commission believes must be carried on next year in order to carry out the purposes for which it was organized, and that it will need for its operations next year a sum not less than three hundred and fifty dollars.

Respectfully submitted,

SELECTMEN'S REPORT

The Board of Selectmen is not a creative body. They function principally to carry out the desires of the citizens as expressed at the Town Meetings and secondarily to take care of any matters that may arise of not sufficient note to necessitate the calling of a special Town Meeting. This we have endeavored to do in an efficient and economical manner to the best of our ability. The County Hospital bill was paid, under protest, $1,492.05 from the surplus, $1,000.00 raised by taxation, and fifteen notes of $1,000.00 each @ 4¼%, one payable each year. It looks at this time as if some of this money would be returned because several of the large cities that were exempted at the time of the payment have since given up their private hospitals and gone in with the County.

We were unable to sell the hay scales, but had same removed and the space graded. The West End school house was moved to the knoll back of the Town Hall and converted into a first-class Town Garage. The appropriation was not sufficient to cover this work and build a thirty-foot shed on one side that would meet the requirements of the Town, and be a respectable looking building as well, so we deemed it best to stop where we did and ask for a small additional amount the coming year. The "Dump" back of the Town Hall has been graded and a parking space made to accommodate about twenty-five cars, thus relieving the congestion in front of the Hall when same is in use.

The item of insurance has been high this year, as we raised the Town Hall policies from $9,500.00 to $15,000.00, which still is small for a building that would cost $40,000.00 to replace. The contents was raised from $500.00 to $1,600.00 on the standards, as these have to be replaced at once at that price, and $1,000.00 on the other contents. The winter of 1923-4 left our highways in bad order, but with that handicap to start with the Highway Department put the streets in their usual high class condition, upset and reshaped about 2.4 miles of Larch Row, Essex St., and Grapevine Road with the aid of one of the State rollers and did not exceed the appropriation.

We wish to thank the other Town officials for their co-operation and congenial relations for the year.

W. MURRAY EATON,
ARTHUR D. PRINCE,
JOSEPH F. LYNCH,
Selectmen of Wenham.

In submitting this report, the Committee feel that they can say that the work has gone on in a most satisfactory manner during the past year. To keep a school like this of ours up to the high standard that is being set throughout the Commonwealth requires a large amount of money. The sum that is recommended for the schools in the current year is a large increase over that of the previous year. The charge for tuition in the Beverly High School having been advanced from $90.00 to $125.00 is responsible for a large part of the necessary increase.

The physical condition of the school building and equipment is excellent, as is shown by frequent reports of the various inspectors and the committee feels that a small appropriation should be made each year in order that it may be kept so.

The school has reecived a gift of a substantial First-Aid Equipment from the local branch of the American Red Cross, and we take this opportunity to express our appreciation for the generous gift.

Your Committee recommend that the following sums be raised and appropriated for the School Department for the current year:

High School tuition,	$5,625 00

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the School Committee of Wenham:

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to present herewith my second annual report of the schools of Wenham.

PROGRESS

Satisfactory progress has been made in several respects which is gratifying to note. It is noted that classroom instruction has improved; that pupils have been able to meet the standard for promotion to a large degree; that greater interest is manifest in the school subjects; that there seems to be a co-operative attitude existing between school officials and patrons of the schools. It is realized that there are places in which our system shows weaknesses but being aware of them is one step toward remedying them.

INSTRUCTION

The class instruction has been improved through the teachers taking special study in extension, correspondence and summer courses.

Teachers are urged to use their classrooms as a laboratory to carry out the new methods they bring back from study. They are urged to make the necessary adaptations that the greatest benefit possible may come to the child. The classes in the several grades are not large and therefore the teachers are able to study each individual child to the end that he may be benefited thereby. By such personal knowledge of the pupil's abilities, teachers are able to secure maximum efficiency on the part of the pupils which results in promotion at the end of the year for all having the ability to do the next higher grade of work. Routine work is deadening to both teachers and pupils. With this in mind we have endeavored to tone up the classroom work by using many different devices to hold the attention of both teachers and pupils without undermining the important work to be accomplished.

EXTENSION OF WORK

A course in sewing for the girls of the fifth grade and a course in shopwork for the boys of the same grade has been carried on once weekly by the teachers of Household Arts and Manual Training. The pupils are receiving much valuable training which will make it possible for them to undertake similar work of the sixth grade and accomplish much more work than has previously been accomplished in this grade. Several over-age pupils in the lower grades have been given the sewing and shopwork with the above fifth grade pupils, as it was evident they would profit by such training.

In addition to the work ordinarily done in the printing departments of Wenham and Hamilton, spelling lists for three grades are being printed by the pupils of grades seven, eight and nine. These lists will be used in place of the regular spelling texts. This gives the pupils an opportunity to do a very practical piece of work. The cost of spelling lists for the school is very inexpensive.

The pupils of the Manual Training Classes have done several pieces of work about the building under the direction of the instructor. Some of this work was new while some was repair.

SPELLING

Considerable interest has been aroused in the grades in the subject of spelling. In May a town spelling contest was held. Two pupils from a grade had been chosen through elimination contests to represent their grade at the contest in competition for a silver loving cup. Six hundred forty-seven words were used to determine the two pupils, Robert Aylward of grade four, and Leighton Caves of grade eight to represent the grades of Wenham at the Union Spelling Contest held at Hamilton Town Hall. There were four hundred ninety-three words used in this union contest. The winner of this contest and of the large loving cup for the Union was Leighton Caves of grade eight, Wenham. Contests similar to the above will be held annually at which time contestants will compete to gain possession of the loving cups for their grade and town.

ARITHMETIC

One year ago the services of Mr. John C. Gray, author of Gray's Number by Development, was had in the schools. He gave demonstrations of the work, as outlined in his book, in the primary grades, and advised the teachers as to the method of procedure. The method has been used in the primary grades the past year with very satisfactory results. The work of the pupils in the intermediate and grammar grades should show the results of the excellent basis for arithmetic work we are laying in the primary grades as the pupils advance to the higher grades.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

That new interest might be aroused in Physical Education, Miss Louise S. French, Assistant Supervisor of Physical Education for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, spent two days in the schools of this Union during the past year observing the work of the teachers in this branch of work, giving demonstrations in the classrooms and addressing the teachers.

In so far as possible it has been our purpose to carry out the state program of Physical Education in our schools. With that end in view, Mrs. Edith Foster has been secured to take over this work devoting two half days to it monthly. She comes to us well qualified, through training and several years' experience, to supervise this branch of work in our schools.

That all children may have an opportunity of enjoying some form of outdoor exercise, other than the supervised games, the following equipment has been installed on the playgrounds: Six swings, five seesaws, one chinning bar, one sand box. It is needless to say that this equipment is fully appreciated by the pupils who will be found using it to capacity at all times possible.

SAVINGS

Our school savings report does not show as great a balance on January 1, 1925, as one year previous. There may be one of two reasons responsible for this falling off in deposits, either pupils are not having as much money to deposit or the automatic stamp selling machines are failing to take the place of the system in use previous to September, 1923.

To supplement that which is being done in the schools I would urge that parents encourage their children to save systematically.

EDUCATION WEEK

American Education Week was observed in the schools of Wenham during the week of November 17, 1924. In each school teachers and pupils endeavored to carry out daily a fitting program devoted to the Constitution of the United States, Patriotism, School and Teacher, Illiteracy, and Physical Education.

November 17th was set aside as the one day on which parents and others would be invited to observe the classroom work in the schools. Grades 1-6 were in session during the regular school hours while grades 7-9 were in session during the latter part of the afternoon and early evening. It was very gratifying to note that a large number of citizens visited all classrooms during the sessions and expressed themselves as generally pleased with the work observed. Following the classroom work of the evening, light refreshments were served and a social time was enjoyed by teachers, pupils and school patrons.

HOME READING WITH SCHOOL CREDIT

Probably no elementary school subject has received more attention during the last half-century than the subject of reading. Without doubt this is due largely to the fact that so much of the school work depends upon the basis for reading formed in the lower grades. Where at one time great stress was laid upon oral reading throughout the grades we now find silent reading is being emphasized as soon as a foundation for the work has been made. By the end of the third or fourth grade the greatest accomplish ments have been made in oral reading and from there on silent reading methods are emphasized.

Public Libraries with suitable reading and reference material are an adjunct to every school system. Pupils in the Wenham schools are fortunate in the library facilities at their disposal.

To encourage pupils in using the library and thereby establishing habits of reading the best of literature, the trustees of the Library have been issuing certificates to pupils who have read a certain number of books from the State Reading Lists. These lists have been supplemented from time to time so that now we find the pupils provided with excellent library facilities.

In co-operation with the Library the school department will issue certificates to pupils in addition to those already issued at the library.

Credit will be given pupils for having read the books if the necessary reports are made on the same. In order to secure credit for this the reading of at least ten books will be required. No pupil will be advised to read more than thirty books in any school year of forty weeks.

HEALTH

For some time it has been apparent to those having to do with the health work in the schools, that there is need of a set of regulations pertaining to the exclusion and quarantine of pupils from school in case of certain contagious diseases. A very complete set of regulations was worked out by the local Board of Health, of which Dr. Frederick Webster is chairman. These regulations have been adopted by the school committee and are printed with this report.

A proper observance of these regulations, by all concerned, will greatly reduce the possibilities of epidemics in the community.

The Hamilton-Wenham Branch of the American Red Cross was most generous in presenting to the school a complete First Aid Cabinet and Medicine Chest. The school is fortunate in having so complete an outfit for emergency use. We are grateful for this gift.

SCHOOL HOURS

Upon the opening of schools in September, the length of the school day for the Junior High School was lengthened one half hour to allow more time for supervised study. The extra time proved very beneficial to both teachers and pupils, as each had the opportunity of giving and receiving necessary help without interfering with any recitation. Several of the school subjects have been given one or two extra periods weekly as the work could not be satisfactorily accomplished in the allotted time. Results seem to justify this change.

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS

The record of our pupils, attending the Beverly High School, has shown that in many cases pupils were not very well prepared to carry on the work. Work in the High School depends largely upon the fitting one receives in the grades. In order to satisfactorily carry on the work the pupil must at least attain the standard of work set for graduation from our Junior High School, and be able to make the necessary adjustments when entering the Beverly School. Without doubt failures on the part of many of our pupils are due to the fact that they are unable to adjust themselves to their new surroundings. Due to their becoming more mature, they are not as easily influenced by parents or teachers. They are not as likely to follow regular study hours and without doubt seek less and less aid from those able to render it. Thus we see that failures are not due to any one thing but to several.

Mr. Pierce, principal of Beverly High School, is endeavoring to raise the standard of work done by our pupils through personal conference with pupils and parents. Reports on work done by all pupils are sent your superintendent each ranking period, and he in turn confers with the parents or pupils when it seems advisable.

On November 24, 1924, the following letter was sent:

"To Parents:

This letter has a two-fold purpose—

First, to inform you of the progress of the pupils as a whole.

Second, to enlist your co-operation in improving the record of your own boy or girl.

There are now forty-one pupils from Wenham attending the Beverly High School. Thirty-one of these passed in all subjects during September and October. Eight had one failure each while two had two failures each.

Failures are classified as follows: English four, Latin and Typewriting two each, French, Chemistry, Arithmetic and Physics one each.

The above failure are so distributed over a wide range of subjects that it leads me to draw the conclusion that the pupils and not the teachers are directly responsible for the failure.

Failures may be attributed to one or more of the following: Lack of earnestness, waste of time, carelessness in work, inattention to instruction, irregular attendance, insufficient home study.

If you have not already done so, will you confer with Principal Pierce of the Beverly High School and learn for what reason your boy or girl may have failed, if such is the case?

"With the co-operation of the parents it would seem reasonable to expect that at least seven of the ten pupils having failures might bring their marks up to a passing grade by the end of the year, with a reasonable amount of effort."

Yours truly,

J. D. WHITTIER,
Superintendent.

At the time of writing this report records of pupils for the November and December ranking period had not been received but I anticipate there being an improvement in the rank of several pupils.

PARENTAL CO-OPERATION

Allow me to quote here what Mrs. H. H. Reeve of Philadelphia, president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, has to say in her address on: "What the Parent Must Do to Make Education Effective" "We are paying the price for the divorce of home from school, of school from community, and the consequent disintegration of the social unit in the life of the child. If it is true, as modern psychologists tell us, that character is made or marred in the first six years of life, we need seek no further for the first contribution to be made by the parent—the right development of the pre-school child.

"The child for which the home is responsible must first be a good little animal. Eyes, ears, teeth, posture, bones and muscles and digestion—all these are fundamental to education, and their development can no more depend upon inspiration or tradition than can the teaching of science or instruction in "readin', 'ritin' and 'rithmetic." But the child cannot even be a good little animal without training in mental and motor habits, and here we have some more foundation stones: sleep and exercise, muscular control of arms and legs, skill in the use of hands and the cultivation of thoroughness, obedience, courtesy and honesty until they have become as automatic as walking, in response to certain stimuli. Observation, concentration, memory and the fluent use and ready understanding of the English language are radical requirements, and though the home educator may be equipped in varying degrees to conduct these courses, it is not the college diploma but the true educational spirit which makes the real teacher.

"The second contribution of the parent is one again too often ignored—the continued support of the home which must be given if the outward forms of education are to produce their proper effect. This sustaining interest must manifest itself in three ways: First, the same—or, let us hope, increasingly intelligent—care must be given to the physical development and the character training of the school child, since the years of school life place upon the "little animal" heavier demands from both body and mind, and the contact with fellow pupils offers more severe tests for moral standards than are usually met with in the shelter of the restricted home circle."

"Second, when the child and the school have come into relationship, the parent's knowledge must extend to a thorough comprehension of the system of which he has now become a part, of the social and economic forces which have been brought to bear upon his boy or girls, his financial interest in the investment he has made and the return he is receiving for the money expended in the support of public instruction. If he is obtaining, through his child, a third-rate article in the way of school or teacher as the result of liberal contributions by means of taxes and bonds, he should act in that case exactly as he would in regard to any other business enterprise—demand that he get what he has paid for. If, on the contrary, he has tried to buy a first-class article at a cut rate and has gotten only what he was willing to pay for, he should place the blame where it belongs—at his own door, and not upon the educational system which he has refused to support."

In the above quotation we see that the head of this nation-wide organization places a great responsibility on the home. I am sure that no parent in Wenham would knowingly neglect his responsibility in furnishing the schools children physically and mentally fit for undertaking the work in the schools. The parent should expect the school system to return these children benefited in every respect by the training provided in the schools.

SCHOOL NEEDS

The same generous financial support from the taxpayers as formerly.

Co-operation with the principal and faculty of Beverly High School in raising the standard of work done by our high school pupils.

Confidence in the school committee that directs the educational system of the town, in the superintendent of schools, the school physician, the school dentist, the school nurse, the supervisors of music, drawing, and physical training and the teachers in the schools.

CONCLUSION

To the members of the committee and others working with me to bring the schools of Wenham to the highest degree of efficiency, I wish to express my appreciation for their co-operation and loyalty.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN D. WHITTIER,
Superintendent of Schools.

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

To the Superintendent of Schools:

DEAR SIR: I herewith submit my second annual report of the Wenham Center School.

One of the chief aims of any school is the making of good citizens. In order to accomplish this aim more effectively, during the year of 1924, much stress has been laid on physical as well as mental training. Each teacher has worked faithfully to develop habits of cleanliness, correct breathing and good posture, all of which are essential to good health.

That each child might develop more of a personal responsibility for clean teeth, face, hands and nails, we have tried to create somewhat of a friendly rivalry between the different grades of the building. At the end of the month, the grade which is considered to have had the best record for cleanliness is allowed to keep for the following month a large banner made for the purpose. This incentive, small as it may seem, has brought good results.

In the same manner, an attendance banner is placed in the room having the highest per cent of attendance, and the least number of tardinesses. Although we feel that most parents are co-operating in keeping their children in school, yet there are still some cases of unnecessary absence and tardiness.

Our extra-curricula activities remain similar to those of last year. The Radio Club still holds the interest of many of the boys of the Junior High School. Enough money has been earned by the club to enlarge its radio set, and also to purchase a loud speaker.

A Literary Club, which has taken the place of the Dramatic Club, has proved successful. Its members show much enthusiasm in the programs that have been not only entertaining but profitable.

Probably no school organization has created more interest on the part of the children than the Debating Club. Each member has been given opportunity to participate in at least one debate. Besides these bi-weekly debates held at the club meetings, a debate with the Essex Junior High School took place last March. The first of the series of interscholastic debates scheduled for this year, was held at Hamilton on December eighteenth. The question was: Resolved, that Alexander Hamilton contributed more to his country than Thomas Jefferson. The decision was awarded to Hamilton by the narrow margin of one and two-thirds points.

Much knowledge of the Constitution of the United States was gained through the contest, made possible by Mr. Elbridge Anderson. Each student of the eighth and ninth grades studied, then wrote a paper on "The United States Government and How it Works." The writers of the eight best papers took part in the final contest held at the Community House in April. The Wenham pupils won several prizes, thereby bringing to their school the silver cup, for a period of one year.

During the past year emphasis has been laid on spelling. Both teachers and pupils have worked to raise the school standard. The town and district contests, held last May, added an interest which has yet to wane.

The annual school entertainment was given on June 18. The proceeds are to be used to purchase pictures for the school rooms.

On November nineteenth a special invitation was extended to the townspeople to observe the regular work of the school. Not only the daily session, but also the evening one was well attended.

The pupils are still glad to contribute to their school paper, "The Wenham Junior High School Breeze." The English and Printing Classes have been greatly benefited by the opportunities offered through the publication of it.

In closing, I wish to express my thanks to the teachers and parents for their co-operation, and to the Superintendent and School Committee for their whole-hearted support.

Respectfully submitted,

January 12, 1925. BESSIE M. BUKER, Principal.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL NURSE

To the Superintendent of Schools:

DEAR SIR: I herewith submit the annual report of the school nurse for the Town of Wenham.

The past year has met with a few changes. The majority of those taking part in the school health program: namely, school physician, superintendent, school committee, teachers, parents and the children themselves have co-operated in building a health program equal to or excelling the average community of its size.

The ultimate aim of the whole health program is the health of the child. Your state and nation are stressing preventive medicine as the best means of approaching this goal. They are urging the correction of the initial defect whether of malnutrition, defective tonsils, eyes, ears, or the more serious conditions of heart or lungs before serious systemic damage arises.

With the ultimate health of the child in view, we have gained permission of many parents for special examinations. In June, those under-weight children, whose parents consented, were given the benefit of a thorough examination of heart and lungs. In view of the fact that under-weight children are considered more susceptible to disease, a yearly examination of those children is urged.

A special examination was also given those children three years retarded in school work to see: first, whether or not there was a physical defect; second, to ascertain, if possible, whether or not anything of further benefit could be done for them either by the correction of a physical defect or by directed study.

At the opening of school in September, we asked permission of parents to give stripped to the waist examinations to all children. By far a greater majority than we expected responded through the eighth grade, there being only a small percentage in the ninth grade. In the Junior High School I feel the decision was often made by the child rather than by the parent.

The percentage of defects was not noticeably increased due to the fact that parents of children with known defects did not avail themselves of the opportunity; or the parents of malnourished or under-weight children were not prone to wish the stripped to the waist examination. These are the children, particularly, who should benefit by yearly examination.

In no way do we wish to humiliate the child or suspect the parent of neglect. We hope to discover defects in the initial stage, before a parent would detect them, and refer all treatment to their family physician.

The first of January a system of daily health inspection was introduced into the schools through the sixth grade. Daily morning inspection is carried on in regard to teeth, hands, face, nails, open windows, hours of sleep, etc. In this way children are trained to give thought to these habits themselves. We need the cooperation of parents in keeping the percentage of defects down to a minimum.

Allow me to quote Dr. Bigelow, Director of Communicable Diseases, in regard to smallpox and vaccination:

"Why vaccinate? To protect the community from smallpox. It is many years since this country has been visited by as much smallpox.

"The Allegheny County Medical Society published the following figures in the Pittsburg Medical Bulletin:

Smallpox Cases—Jan. 1, 1924 to July 21, 1924

Connecticut	247	New Jersey	267
California	738	New York	200
Indiana	2,870	Ohio	3,901
Kansas	1,080	North Carolina	3,326
Minnesota	1,494	Pennsylvania	187

"The manner of spread of this disease by our modern transportation methods is well illustrated by the following experience.

Two men were traveling together in Canada, both in search of work. On January 3, 1924, they both separated in Winnipeg, one going to Duluth, the other to Detroit. The former developed the first case of malignant smallpox in Duluth in this year and died. Subsequently 39 others died. The latter spent three or four nights in various rooming houses in Detroit, returning to Windsor, Canada, before symptoms of smallpox developed. Following his visitation to Detroit there were 119 deaths from malignant smallpox.

"Massachusetts has been comparatively fortunate so far this year with only twelve cases and two deaths from smallpox. By enforcing the compulsory vaccination of school children and encouraging unvaccinated adults to be vaccinated we can keep out the disease. As the proportion of unvaccinated in your community increases so does the danger from a smallpox outbreak. If one of these men from Canada had come into your community in search of work what would have happened?"

As in previous years, the Hamilton-Wenham Red Cross is continuing the work of the dental clinic. This year they have voted to carry the work through the fifth grade only. As in the past the accomplishment has been creditable.

Many defects of a correctable nature are yet evident and parents are urged to consult their family physician, or the school nurse, with the idea of having the defects remedied.

The following statistics are available:

	Approximate No. examined	Defects	Notices	*Defects corrected
Teeth,	167	92	92	29
Tonsils,	167	13	13	3
Heart,	167	Possibly 1

Eyes,	167	5	5	1
Ears,	167	0	0

Posture defects	167	77	0
Pediculosis,	167	13	13	12

* Defects corrected through co-operation with the school. Other defects have been corrected privately, but no record is obtainable on these cases.

In closing, I wish to thank the Superintendent, School Committee, teachers and all who have co-operated in maintaining the school health program.

REPORT OF DRAWING SUPERVISOR

To the Superintendent of Schools:

DEAR SIR: I herewith submit my second annual report.

My drawing course has again this year been carried out along definite lines with a definite aim in view as last year.

My objective in teaching art in the schools is to teach the pupils to use drawing as a means of expressing themselves freely, to improve house decorations, and dress, and to appreciate the beauty in the forms and color in nature and art. This may be accomplished by the following course of work:

"Representation" includes the drawing of pictures, perspective, the study of the human figure, animal drawing, and nature drawing. Under this subject several drawings from nature have been made. In grades one and two the "Mother Goose Rhymes" and the "Three Bear Story" have been fully illustrated. In grades three and four the drawing has been correlated with reading on the study of Holland. Grades four, five and six have done somewhat the same kind of work only on Japan. The drawings have covered many of the outstanding characteristics of those countries. In nearly every grade this has been extremely successful.

Among the upper classes from grade six through the Junior High School there has been a more definite study of the figure. They have made outline drawings, and also many silhouettes in ink of different poses. Several lessons were spent on the drawing of just the head showing a variety of facial expressions and many styles of hair-dressing.

There is always a great demand for posters in my work. Last spring the sixth grade drew "Safety First" posters, and the three best ones were sent in to the State contest. Some on health have been started in grade five, and an advertising poster on travel, which includes much practise on lettering, in the Junior High School.

"Design" is the next subject under my work. This is just being started for this year. Upon reviewing what had been covered last year, I was surprised to find how much the boys and girls had remembered. There is much to learn about the laws of order, color theory, and geometric shapes. After these are thoroughly understood, the child has a clear knowledge to develop a design worth using. Some have already been accomplished.

"Construction" is the third and last branch under my work. It develops creative ability, hand skill, and accuracy in following directions. There is much opportunity during the special days, such as Hallowe'en, Thanksgiving, and Christmas for construction work. At Thanksgiving time Indian symbols were constructed and some of the material was used for sand tables picturing an Indian village. In one room, where they were studying Japan, a very interesting sand table on that country was constructed. Much of the Christmas work comes under this heading. At that time several window, tree, and room decorations were made, also place cards, calendars and Santa Claus drawings.

Two banners were desired, one for perfect "attendance" and one for "cleanliness." The Junior High School classes designed the lettering, transferred them to white felt, and then cut them out to be mounted on green felt. Afterwards they were sent to the sewing department where they were completed.

Summing up the year's work I wish to extend my sincere thanks to teachers, pupils, and school officials for their co-operation and activity in making my work very interesting.

Respectfully submitted,

MADELEINE S. HOPKINS,

Supervisor of Drawing.

REPORT OF THE MUSIC SUPERVISOR

To the Superintendent of Schools:

DEAR SIR: At your request a report of the work in music in the Town of Wenham is herewith submitted.

The aim of my course is to inspire the pupils with an appreciation of real music, and to teach them an intelligent interpretation of such music, that they may realize that it is a privilege to be able to render selections in such a manner as to give pleasure not only to the performer but to the listener as well.

Music is a most helpful and uplifting factor in our lives whether we are keenly alive to its influence or not.

It is my firm belief that every one who can learn to talk can also learn to sing, although in many cases it is a long process and calls for much patience and perseverance upon the part of teacher and pupil, therefore, every pupil in every class is expected to make the effort to sing as well as he can, even if the efforts of many are not crowned with success, yet there is much that can be learned as to the technique of music which is valuable.

In the limited amount of time devoted to music study great care must be taken in the selection of subject matter, as only the best gives the best results.

We are in great need of a small music library for reference in the upper grades.

The Victrola is a great help in the work and I believe in its frequent use in the classroom as it greatly enriches the lesson and brings before the class a realization of music as an art.

Our course in Music Appreciation is creating considerable interest in the study of the different forms of music. During the month of December, besides studying many of the Christmas carols, we made a study of the oratorio of the Messiah by means of Victrola records and talks upon the wonderful composition and its composer, Handel, and it was pleasant to hear the reports of those pupils who were able to hear radio programs embracing Messiah selections. We also study national songs, the opera, and the symphony in the same way; the latter study calling for classification of the various orchestral instruments.

The interest in music study is steadily increasing and although the results obtained are far from those sought, yet an advance is being made in the right direction.

In many of the grades we have formed little groups of singers whose work is good and whose voices are melodious; these singers constitute a glee club who count it an honor to belong to the club and render songs for the class, while the others may join in the chorus of such selections.

I have found the co-operation of the grade teachers most helpful in carrying out the work planned, and, in closing, I take this opportunity to thank you for your hearty support.

Respectfully submitted,

BESSIE CLEAVELAND,
Supervisor of Music.

REPORT OF SUPERVISOR OF PHYSICAL TRAINING

To the Superintendent of Schools:

DEAR SIR: The Department of Physical Training was introduced this year into your schools with bi-monthly visits from your supervisor.

This year's work may be considered as foundational.

We featured during the fall term playground work and calisthenics, with special attention to corrective exercises for postural defects.

On the playground, our objective was not merely the playing of games. The mental and ethical training acquired during a properly conducted period of organized games is as valuable as the muscular training. Alertness, concentration, inhibition, quick reaction to stimulus, snap judgment and instant obedience to command are essential to a successful period of organized play. These are mental qualities that are invaluable later in life.

We organize our group into squads with pupil leaders. Playing the games to win for the squad, or team, develops a group consciousness, a subordination of the individual interests to the good of the group. This group consciousness develops at the age when the old "gang spirit" once manifested itself, usually with a bully for a leader. The instinct of the gang required a leader. So the instinct of the group requires a leader from among its members. We recognize the hereditary instinct, and direct its activity. This group consciousness becomes in later life civic consciousness. Obedience to the rules of the games develops the mental habit which will later manifest itself in obedience to the laws of the land.

We have featured throughout the course corrective exercises for drooping head and round shoulders, the two prevailing types of faulty posture. We keep continually in their minds the desirability of good posture, from the æsthetic viewpoint, and from the viewpoint of physical efficiency.

We have given gymnastic exercises as much as time allotted and floor space available would permit. Our aim is not to dash through a series of exercises. It is to perform each given exercise in proper form, that we get exactly the muscular reaction for which the exercise is planned, and that no faulty posture is assumed during the exercise. We vary the rhythm in which we give the exercises, as we strive for mental alertness during a gymnastic period. The power of concentration, inhibition, and instant response to stimuli will be developed in a good series of gymnastic lessons. This mental training is as valuable as the muscular exercise. We choose exercises for the big muscles of the trunk and legs, as our work follows protracted periods of sitting, and we wish to relieve the congested circulation in the tissues which have not been active.

We teach the simpler commands of Marching Tactics, as a class can be handled without loss of time, only if they can respond to marching commands.

During the winter term, we expect to feature Folk Dancing as much as floor space, the use of a piano, and time allotted will permit.

Throughout our course, we try to inculcate in the pupils' minds the idea of the value of fresh air, sunshine, physical activity, good posture, hard play, fair play, and mental alertness.

The old slogan, "A sound mind in a sound body," seems to express most adequately our aim. We wish each pupil might develop a body that is a perfectly balanced machine which will respond efficiently to the control of an alert, well-balanced, well-inhibited mind, which is the central controlling factor of a perfect mechanism.

Respectfully submitted,

EDITH FOSTER, Supervisor of Physical Training.

REPORT OF LIBRARY TRUSTEES

The Trustees of the Public Library submit the following report for 1924: The Library shows a gratifying increase in use this past year. The wider circulation of non-fiction books is particularly noticeable; for instance, 492 volumes of biography. That shows that the Library is being used more and more as a place of reference, its proper function. At the same time, good contemporary fiction has not been neglected.

Increased circulation has meant increasing wear and mending has been a big undertaking. Miss Dodge has given the Librarian a great deal of help in the up-keep of our books. Altogether 1560 copies have been re-vamped. Miss Helen Aylward has become an efficient assistant.

The Trustees gratefully acknowledge gifts of books from Miss Adelaide Wilkins and Mr. Herbert Porter.

The board was handicapped during some months by Dr. Smart and Mr. Lord moving out of town. Mr. Lord, with Miss Welch, bought books, chairs and supervised the new lighting arrangements. The withdrawal of these two gentlemen threw additional work on the Librarian, and for its successful accomplishment she worked hard, taking no vacation.

Messrs. John D. Whittier and John F. A. Davis were added to the board in place of Dr. Smart and Mr. Lord. Mr. Whittier brings to the Library a wealth of useful knowledge of children. Through his suggestions we have been able to add materially to our reference and story books for them. The Library now owns fairly complete sets of approved state and school list books.

The Trustees have made arrangements to conduct a Story Hour at the Library on Saturday mornings. These will be held during January and February and if the demand seems sufficient for a longer period. Miss Florence Middlebrook and Miss Laura Leland, teachers at the Center School, have consented to give their services to conduct the story hour on alternate Saturdays. The children from grades one to four are invited to the story hour conducted by Miss Middlebrook, for those in the fifth and above are invited to the story hour conducted by Miss Leland.

The Trustees feel fortunate in securing the services of these teachers and anticipate a large attendance on the part of the children for whose benefit the Story Hours are held.

The State Reading Course, introduced in our school by Mr. Lord and enthusiastically carried on in the Library by Mrs. Cole, shows an unflagging interest, as will be seen by the following names:

The Board asks for a larger appropriation for 1925 and submits the following approximate budget:

Books and Magazines	$800 00
Administration	600 00
Transportation	20 00
Incidentals	80 00
	$1,500 00

We have reached the point where the work of the Library necessitates a librarian and two assistants. To curtail the administration would mean especially hurting the work for children. Yet without a larger appropriation the proportion of money for books to that for overhead will be out of line, unless such an unfortunate step is taken. Surely the increased circulation as shown in the Librarian's report warrants an increase in purchase of books.

SELECTMEN'S REPORT

In accordance with the vote of the Annual Town Meeting held March second, Nineteen hundred and twenty-five, we have sold the East Wenham School House and Lot to Mrs. Abby N. Prince for Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). We have built the addition to the Town Garage and installed electric lights, making a first class Garage and Storage Shed. We have arranged with Lawrence E. Topham to straighten the boundary line back of the Town Garage to the advantage of both the Town and Mr. Topham. We have made alterations in the Town Hall, thus providing adequate and better toilet facilities. Incidentally putting a steel ceiling in the Selectmen's Room and renovating the walls, also partitioning off a storage space for the Library from the Town Treasurer's Room, thus giving the Library much needed storage and the Treasurer a better and more easily heated office.

In the handling of the general business of the Town, we will let the Town Report, in which is printed in detail the transactions of the various departments, convey to you our actions. We might add that under the Highway Department the old wooden guard rail on the East side of the Grapevine Road Bridge has been replaced by a stone fence that will last for generations, and the guard rails on both sides of the Miles River Bridge on Larch Row have been replaced by a concrete post and wire cable fence, such as adopted by the highway departments of New York and New Hampshire. The boundary lines between our Town and the City of Beverly, Town of Danvers and the Town of Topsfield have been "run" this year according to custom.

In closing we would express our sincere thanks to all with whom we have labored this year, for their assistance and co-operation.

W. MURRAY EATON,
ARTHUR D. PRINCE,
JOSEPH F. LYNCH,
Board of Selectmen, Town of Wenham.

The sum that is recommended by your committee was arrived at after carefully considering every item. The public school of today is an entirely different institution from that of a generation ago and many of its present-day activities which would then have been considered extravagant have been introduced in compliance with legislative requirements or to meet the demands of our citizens that their school should be equal to the best. It has been the constant aim of your committee that the high standard, that has obtained in the past, should be maintained and they recommend that the following sums be raised and, together with the balance ($792.26) from last year be appropriated for the use of the School Department for the current year.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the School Committee:

GENTLEMEN: I am submitting my third annual report as superintendent of your schools.

HEALTH

This topic is of sufficient importance to be given first place in any report having to do with the education of children. The health program in our schools is of the best. The school physician and nurse very methodically carry on the necessary examinations to determine the exact physical condition of every child. Individual treatment is given or recommended in so far as is justifiable, then the case is taken to the parent with a request that the family physician be consulted. The program for this work is preventive and remedial health work but the most important is the real program of health education, for thereby is laid the important foundation for future citizenship—a healthy body.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

If the prescribed school work is to be accomplished by the pupil it is necessary that he be regular in attendance to profit by the instruction given. In order that the teachers may meet the requirements of their work they should not be expected to do review work for the reason that some one has been absent from classes. During the past year every teacher has endeavored to secure as high a percent of attendance in her school as possible.

As a result of these efforts the "Monthly Reports to the Superintendent" show that in but three cases did the per cent of attendance in any school fall below ninety. The median per cent of attendance from January to December has been ninety-six, which is about three per cent higher than for the state during the year 1923-24. If there is neither an epidemic nor severe weather during the next few months we should be able to maintain this present high standard.

An examination of the reports reaching this office disclosed the fact that there were altogether too many tardy marks. Teachers were instructed to use every means possible to reduce the number. We have not been able to make the progress I desired. I am therefore appealing to the parents to co-operate with the teachers to the extent that the children be punctual in attendance.

As an incentive to the children a "Perfect Attendance Certificate" is awarded all pupils in June neither absent nor tardy for the school year. A list of those perfect in attendance for the school year 1924-25 is appended to this report.

HONOR ROLL

That greater interest in scholarship may be created among pupils of the Junior High School an "Honor List" is prepared at the end of each two months. Pupils who receive 1's and 2's are given a place on the list according to the per cent of 1's received. The list is published in the papers as well as posted in the schools. There is a very noticeable effort on the part of many pupils to have their scholarship of such a high grade that they may win a place on the list and as near the head of the same as possible. The list of honor pupils from September to December, inclusive, is appended to this report.

It is noticeable that several who did not secure a place on the Honor Roll at the end of October did get on the roll in December. The list is sure to change somewhat every ranking period, and therefore should induce pupils to put forth every effort possible for a place on the same.

HOME READING WITH SCHOOL CREDIT

This topic was treated at length in my last year's report. Results have been even greater than anticipated. Pupils are provided with the best of fiction and non-fiction books through the public and school libraries. They become interested in the best of reading material while they are young, and without doubt will retain the desire for good reading as they become more mature. As a result of the interest shown by pupils and teachers it is not an uncommon occurrence to hear a pupil give a book report and carry on an interesting discussion on the same which would be the equal of one given by an adult. A complete list of those having received "Reading Certificates" last June is appended to this report.

PROFESSIONAL IMPROVEMENT

School systems are rated as good or poor according to the professional fitness of the teachers in charge to do the required work. A teacher may be well trained and have had several years' successful teaching experience, but unless professional study is carried on under able instructors said teachers soon find that they have not kept pace with the trend of modern education. They find that their work is the same from year to year with a result that they lose interest in their work from a professional standpoint. The pupils also lose interest because of the deadening instruction and long for the day to come when they may leave school.

Due to several reasons not as many of our teachers have taken professional courses this year as formerly. The chief reason seems to have been that no courses which the teachers could take have been given in the immediate vicinity of Wenham or that the courses given at the universities did not appeal to them. It is fully expected that several will take courses at the Normal Schools or in Extension Classes during the next summer.

Those who have taken courses during the past year are herewith given:

Teacher	Institution Attended	Course
Mona G. Baker	Boston University	Civic Education
Mrs. Bernice Crawley	Boston University	English
Bessie Buker	Boston University	Civic Education

EDUCATION WEEK

This week in November of every year has become a great national event. The observance of this week is looked forward to by parents, teachers and pupils. Except through the assemblies on the day observed in our schools teachers are expected to carry on the regular program of work with the exception of emphasizing one of the major subjects in order that the parents and others may become acquainted with the requirements in the several classes. A late afternoon and evening session in the junior high grades is maintained that parents may have an opportunity to learn from personal observation the type of work the children are doing.

Because of the fact that Education Week comes early in the year, before pupils have accumulated much written work, parents were invited to the schools in the late spring that they might observe classroom work but more especially the written and art work.

FIRE PREVENTION

Not a single month passes that we do not read in the daily press of a disastrous fire where a school building has been consumed in flames. If there is no loss of life and the property is insured there is immediate relief otherwise the public generally gives considerable thought to the occurrence.

Thought after the loss of life or property is valueless unless it has to do with the prevention of similar occurrences. There is considerable printed material available for instruction in fire prevention and other types of safety education. Much of this material has been placed in the hands of the teachers that they may instruct the pupils as to the unnecessary waste and suffering due to fires and thereby teach the pupils that they have a civic responsibility in preventing the loss of life and property. The value of this instruction will be most difficult to measure, however, the great annual loss of life and property within our Commonwealth impels me to feel that our children should not be allowed to go through our schools without the necessary instruction.

COURSE OF STUDY

English

Teachers in the grades have been provided with a course of study in Language and Composition in which both oral, written and technical work is emphasized. Definite instruction for teaching is included with the outline for each grade. In the fifth grade but little technical grammar is included but the requirements are increased in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. At the end of the eighth grade we expect pupils to have a very definite understanding of oral and written English as well as a complete mastery of technical grammar.

Geography

During the past year your superintendent has devoted considerable time, with other educators, reviewing materials for a state course of study in geography for grades three to six inclusive. This course has already been typed for distribution in grades three and four and will be for grades five and six as soon as the same comes from the Committee.

In order to put this course into operation that pupils may be benefited by the same it will be necessary to build up a library of reference books on geography. Much of the work outlined will not be found in a single textbook and therefore the need of a reference library. This library will correct a long-standing defiiciency at the school.

STANDARD TESTS

During the year classroom teaching results have been checked up by giving of several standard tests. The Boston University State-wide English Test and the Wilson Language Test in three parts were given throughout the schools. Several tests prepared by your superintendent and teachers were also given in Arithmetic and Spelling.

In the State-wide English Test eighty-seven towns in this Commonwealth participated. The rank for this Superintendency Union was forty-sixth in the list of eighty-seven with a median of 19.28. The highest median score was 24.76. The lowest was 13.77. The median of town medians was 19.32 which shows that our schools were .04 below the state merian. This test brought out several weaknesses in our type of instruction which were emphasized from day to day in preparation for the later Wilson Language Error Test. Almost invariably the results of each test have shown marked improvement over previous tests.

In December grades five, six and seven participated in a State-wide Arithmetic Test based upon addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, fractions and business problems. The State results are not yet available, however, the results in the Wenham schools were found to compare very favorably with results compiled for this Superintendency Union.

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS

My last year's report showed that reports on our pupils attending the Beverly High School were not entirely satisfactory. We now have enrolled at Beverly thirty-nine pupils. During September and October thirty of these had no failures. Seven had failures in but one subject, while two had failures in two subjects each. In number of failures there is not noticeable any improvement, however, in the per cents given for rank in the several subjects there is a decided improvement. The pupils as a whole are receiving more ranks above eighty than previously. One of our pupils, Elizabeth Featherstone, was on the Honor Roll for September and October. It is possible for others to have this honor, if necessary marks are received.

The attendance for our pupils was ninety-eight per cent during September and October with eighty-one per cent of the enrolment perfect in attendance. This is an exceptionally high attendance report and without doubt has its effect upon the higher scholarship marks received by the students.

PROMOTIONS

If all pupils were sure of receiving a promotion at the close of schools in June they would be most happy throughout the entire school year. Such is not the case with many pupils. Their rank cards received five times yearly are a reminder to parents and pupils that the grade of work is either below the passing grade or just on the border line. In some cases parents interview the teachers and cooperate in every way possible to have the child do satisfactory work. At other times the danger signal is not heeded, in which cases the pupils fail of promotion in June. This failure is justifiable if the teacher, parent and pupil have cooperated to the fullest degree possible and the pupil is not able to do the work. If they have not and the pupil fails of promotion there is the feeling on the part of parent and child that the teacher is "no good" and that the child has been unjustly treated by an unsatisfactory and unsympathetic teacher. The work of these same pupils with other teachers proves that the cases of unjust treatment are very rare. Promotions are made solely on the basis of what is best for the child from an educational standpoint. In the first three grades the greater emphasis is put upon reading and language, while in the following grades it is placed upon Arithmetic and English. If a pupil cannot do the work of these subjects satisfactorily it is for his advantage to repeat the year's work. He thereby masters his subject matter and has a good foundation for doing the next year's work.

In certain cases it is advisable that a pupil be promoted on "condition," which means that he is given an examination at the opening of schools in September or given a month's trial in the next grade. The "conditioned" pupils are the ones the teachers and superintendent feel can do the work if they make the proper application. After being conditioned too few put forth the necessary effort to remove the condition, and therefore find it necessary to repeat the full year's work.

At the close of schools in June it was found that seven per cent of the pupils in grades one to nine, inclusive, had failed of promotion. This per cent is not large, however, if there is a possibility of reducing this number we should not feel that our work is satisfactory until the smallest per cent possible has been reached.

APPRECIATION

The assistance, received from all individuals and organizations, which has been given for the benefit of the pupils and several schools is hereby acknowledged. All such have a tendency to broaden the field of service of the contributor and without exception have much influence in shaping the lives of the recipients.

RECOMMENDATIONS

That the same corps of teachers be retained for the ensuing year.

That dental clinic work in some form be continued.

That the financial assistance of interested citizens be solicited in establishing scholarship or other prizes for excellency in general scholarship or special subjects.

CONCLUSION

My appreciation is hereby expressed to the several teachers and supervisors for their professional attitude toward the work and to the members of the school committee for the thoroughly business-like and genuinely sympathetic manner in which they grasp the needs of the school system in relation to the money appropriated by the taxpayers.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN D. WHITTIER,

Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF THE MUSIC SUPERVISOR

To the Superintendent of Schools.

DEAR SIR: At your request, I herewith submit my annual report.

The aim of our course in Music is to awaken and develop an appreciation for the best music, to enable the pupil to read music and render songs with intelligence and with a pleasing quality of tone.

The work is begun with rote-singing in Grade I, where many beautiful folk-songs and art songs are given along the line of the child's experience. This foundation prepares the way for the presentation of musical notation in Grade II, where the simplest problems of tune and time are given. Rote singing is continued and some of our national songs are memorized.

The work in Grade III is a continuation of sight-reading with more difficult problems of time and rhythm introduced, all the songs being sung in unison, for part work, in which the children find much pleasure, is given for the first time in Grade IV.

In Grades V and VI more part singing is given and three-part work is given in Grade VI.

Lessons in Music Appreciation are given in all the grades by means of the Victrola, which brings to the children much of the world's greatest music, the pupils being required to know the name of the selection as well as the composer's name.

The work in the Junior High embraces singing in parts and lessons in Music Appreciation, one period each week being given to Music Appreciation. Lessons are given in the fundamental principles of Music, leading up to lessons in musical form, the pupil learning to recognize the march, the dance, the rondo, and on to the study of the oratorio, the opera, the sonata and symphony.

The lives of some of the great masters like Beethoven, Mozart and Schubert are studied and their compositions played on the Victrola.

During December, while the lower grades were studying Christmas carols, ancient and modern, the Junior High studied Handel's Messiah, when the pupils wrote short sketches of the life of the great composer and many selections from the great masterpiece were played.

Recently the Junior High has been studying the Boston Symphony Orchestra with much interest and twenty-eight pupils attended a concert given in a neighboring town by a group of Boston Symphony players. Great interest is taken in the broadcast of the Saturday evening concerts. Scrap books of the Opera and Symphony are being made of newspaper clippings.

The Music Memory Contest, in which Wenham joins with other towns, is creating considerable interest.

The fine Chickering grand pianoforte which has recently been placed in the Assembly Hall answers a long-felt need, and will be a constant source of inspiration and culture to every pupil in the building, for such an instrument appeals to the best in whoever listens to its tones.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to those who have made it possible for us to have so fine a piano.

The hearty cooperation of both teachers and pupils makes the work move along smoothly and satisfactorily and in closing I wish to express my sincere appreciation of the untiring efforts of the teachers in preparing the lessons each week and of your most cordial support of the work.

Respectfully submitted,

BESSIE CLEAVELAND,

Supervisor of Music.

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

To the Superintendent of Schools,

DEAR SIR: I herewith submit my third annual report of the Wenham Center School.

Although the personnel of teachers has been changed somewhat, our work is still carried on in a manner similar to that of last year.

Under the supervision of the school nurse and the physical training instructor, our health program has become more and more beneficial to the pupils. A marked improvement has been made in daily habits of cleanliness. We are continually striving to influence many of the children to increase the number of hours of their sleep each day, a task in which we trust that parents will cooperate with us.

One of our greatest problems is that of posture. Realizing that poor posture tends to poor health, the teachers have attempted by means of various devices to keep the thought of correct sitting and standing positions constantly before pupils. Although we have become rather discouraged on seeing the results of physical examinations and posture tests, yet we feel that these should be an incentive for greater effort on our parts. In this, too, we hope that parents will work with us, that habits of faulty posture may be overcome.

That the children enjoy the large playground provided them is not a matter of conjecture. Each group enters heartily into a game suggested by one of its number, or by a teacher in charge. Not only are such games of value from the physical standpoint, but loyalty, cooperation, leadership and other desirable qualities are being developed.

As the pupils in the Junior High School again desired Radio and Debating Clubs, these groups still continue to hold their meetings regularly. The programs of the Radio Club consist of a study of the parts of the radio, their names and uses. By reading newspapers and current magazines, the boys also acquaint themselves with radio development.

In the Debating Club much drill has been given in the selection and organization of material, necessary for the proof of certain points. The valuable results of such training have been noticeable in many other lines of school work, as well as in debating. On January twenty-eighth, nineteen hundred twenty-five, a team from Topsfield debated with the Wenham Junior High on the question: "Resolved, that Daylight Saving is a benefit to the people of Massachusetts." The decision was given to Wenham.

The Dramatic Club has given place to the Lyceum, which includes a greater variety of programs, both interesting and educational.

Much improvement in spelling has been made throughout the school. This is partially due to the incentive furnished by the town and district contests.

A new feature was added to our school program last year. Each child in the seventh, eighth and ninth grades learned and gave before his school some worth-while selection. The two best speakers of each grade were chosen to compete in a town contest, the winner of which participated in the district contest. That was held in Essex, on May twenty-second, Lincoln Ashworth, a Wenham pupil, won the first prize.

Each year the majority of the boys of the printing class are taking the work for the first time. Yet the last edition of the "Wenham Junior High School Breeze," the school paper, was much larger than any previous one. In addition to this, the boys have spent a great amount of time in setting the type and printing spelling leaflets for use in the schools of the district.

Invitations were extended to the people of the town to attend an exhibition held on May 29. Each child displayed samples of work he had done at different times during the school year. The exhibit of the Domestic Arts Department consisting of various articles of wearing apparel, and of practical, everyday cooking, with that of the Manual Training Department, made up of piano benches, book cases, telephone stands, costumers, etc., proved to be of special interest.

Again, on November 16, about seventy persons observed some of the regular work of the pupils. The teachers appreciated the interest shown by the parents and friends who visited on these occasions, or at any other time.

In closing, I wish to thank the Superintendent, School Committee, parents and teachers for their cooperation, and for the hearty support which they have given.

Respectfully submitted,

BESSIE M. BUKER,

January 25, 1926. Principal.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL NURSE

To the Superintendent of Schools,

DEAR SIR: I herewith submit the annual report of the School Nurse for the Town of Wenham.

The following is the report of the School Nurse, Miss Helen E. Purdy, from January 1, 1925 to June 26, 1925 for the Town of Wenham.

"Defective	vision	7	Treatment obtained		4
"	hearing	0
"	teeth	15
"	tonsils	2	"	"	2
"	nutrition	27
Periculosis		2
Urging nursing attention			"	"	34

No. children taken to Doctor, Dentist, Hospital, Oculist, etc. 34."

My work for the past year from October 5, 1925 to January 1, 1926 in furthering the program of improving the health of the children in the community, with the cooperation of the school physician, superintendent, school committee, teachers, parents and the children themselves has been very successful, although more complete cooperation from the parents is needed.

VACCINATION

The importance of timely vaccination of children of school age cannot be too strongly brought to the attention of parents. It is the only safeguard to protect the community from small-pox. Children who have not been vaccinated are more susceptible to this disease. Pupils should be vaccinated in early summer, before entering the first grade in September, in order that they may enter on first of year without a sore arm which might be injured in play.

DENTAL CLINIC

The Hamilton-Wenham branch of the Red Cross has again assisted by financing the Dental Clinic through the fifth grade. It is doubtful if this help will be given after June 30, 1926, owing to lack of funds. If this work is continued as it should be the money must be secured from some other source.

DAILY HEALTH PROGRAM

A daily health program is carried on in each grade throughout the school year. This program consists of checking up daily on every pupil. The following are emphasized: The amount of sleep; the amount of fresh air required by each; their personal habits in cleanliness, which includes the number of baths taken each week; the care given their finger nails, teeth, hair, etc. At the end of each month an average is taken in each grade. The grade having obtained the highest average is given a health banner. We find by this simple method of instruction and follow-up work cleanliness soon becomes a habit among the children, thereby fitting them to become an asset to the community in which they live.

STRIPPED-TO-THE-WAIST EXAMINATIONS

We urge and request that a stripped-to-the-waist examination should be given to all the pupils in the schools, as only in this way can a beneficial examination be made. We can in this way discover defects in the initial stage and take due precaution by referring them to the family physician.

A physical examination by Dr. J. G. Corcoran was given to each pupil through the ninth grade at the beginning of the present school year. The following shows the result of the examination:

Defective tonsils	22	Notices	22	Defects corrected	2

In closing, I wish to thank the Superintendent, School Committee, Parents, Teachers and all who have cooperated in maintaining the school health program.

School Nurse.

REPORT OF THE SUPERVISOR OF PHYSICAL TRAINING

To the Superintendent of Schools.

DEAR SIR: The Physical Education Department has featured three phases of the work: games, folk dancing and formal gymnastics to prevent and correct postural defects.

During the fall and spring, the Physical Education periods were spent on the playground, where attention is not centered on a few clever athletes who form one school team. On the contrary, every child plays every game, and the timid ones are encouraged until self-confidence is developed. Each class is divided into squads under pupil leadership, and these squads are so organized that after a game has been taught, several groups can be playing at one time. The hygienic value of exercises in the open air needs no explanation, but it may be well to call attention to the mental and moral training indirectly resulting. The pupil who learns to act quickly upon a snap judgment; respond quickly to command; obey cheerfully the directions of the leader: lose gracefully; win modestly; play fair; and play for the team, not for the individual; has learned lessons of self-control and good citizenship.

In our work with formal gymnastics, we have presented exercises which aim to correct such defects as drooping head, forward shoulders, flat chest, curved spine, and other defects of carriage.

Any general vigorous physical exercise, play included, is corrective, in that it is hygienic, increasing the nutrition, and improving the tone of the musculature which holds the various bones in place. Yet during formal gymnastics, correct posture is assumed as a definite exercise, and simple corrective exercises for home practice are suggested for those whose rank in posture is low. We hold correct posture continually in the minds of the pupils, and we have been gratified to note certain cases of marked improvement.

During the winter, folk dancing is introduced into the program. A certain type of awkwardness has gradually lessened during these periods, and this alone has seemed to make the work worth while. Folk dancing is quite definitely a thing apart from other dancing, and serves an entirely different purpose. The sturdy, athletic pupils, and the diffident, poorly developed pupils as well, have a peculiar need of this type of exercise, which stimulates the circulatory and respiratory tracts, develops grace and a sense of rhythm, a well-poised erect carriage, and the finer muscular coordination.

We have as our goal for each pupil: A Sound Mind in a Sound Body, and as we try to develop the bodily mechanism, it is happily a fact that the mind is developed in like degree. For every new muscular coordination is acquired through developing the neuro-muscular tract that controls the given set of muscles. The mind is trained and stabilized by use, the nervous system is trained and strengthened, the heart and lungs are developed, and the body is storing a reserve strength and endurance for future years when conditions of growth or disease may make a sudden and unexpected demand upon these physical resources.

EDITH RHODES FOSTER,
Instructor in Physical Training.

REPORT OF DRAWING SUPERVISOR

To the Superintendent of Schools:

DEAR SIR: I herewith present my report of the work in drawing since I assumed my duties in September.

My aim in teaching art in the schools is not to make artists of the pupils, but to enable them to appreciate and make use of what little talent each child may have. So many people say, "I can't draw." True, all of us are not artists, but the same person does not say, "I can't write," when he sits down to write a letter or note. With this idea in mind I am trying to teach the children how to plan, construct and decorate and really make something worth while and use drawing as a means of expression. Also through drawing we can learn to appreciate the beauty in the forms and color in nature, and to improve our house decorations and dress.

In the upper grades I have aroused much interest and enthusiasm in drawing through bookbinding. First, we discussed bound books and carefully planned our books, taking up mechanical drawing and drawing to a scale. Using the plans we cut and folded our materials. Perhaps the most interesting step in the making of the books was the painting of the paper for the covers. It is hard to realize that the coverings of our books are nothing more than common wrapping paper painted with water color. With our materials in readiness we proceeded to actually construct and bind a real book. It was interesting to watch the children and see their satisfaction in their work.

In the fall we first took up nature work. A careful study of the shapes, sizes and colors found in our specimens was made before any attempt at painting with water color. The best way to know a flower is to paint one. Color took its important part in our work in the making of a color circle of the six standard colors.

In the grammar grades we have tried to make drawing worth while and interesting through correlation with other subjects. In the sixth grade we have correlated Greek history and drawing in the making of a booklet. We planned and constructed covers to hold our drawings and stories of Greece. To make the written work more attractive we have made illuminated letters for each paper, then studying lettering and simple design.

In another grade we have correlated drawing with Geography. The children have made scenes illustrating the different industries, such as manufacturing and lumbering.

In the lower grades we have correlated the work with elementary history and geography, making Indian borders and Eskimo booklets using colored paper as a medium. Children are especially fond of cutting, and learn to recognize forms and shapes by this method very quickly, and the results have been astonishing. A great deal of credit belongs to the teacher in this grade for the help she has given me in obtaining such good progress.

I wish to extend my sincere thanks to you and the principal and teachers for their kind cooperation and help, and to assure you that we shall make every effort to place the subject of drawing on a level with other subjects in the curriculum, and make it worth while and interesting to the child.

Respectfully submitted,

ABBIE U. CRAGG,

Supervisor of Drawing.

REPORT OF LIBRARY TRUSTEES

To the Citizens of the Town of Wenham:

The Board of Trustees of the Wenham Public Library submits the following report for the year ending December 31, 1925.

RESIGNATIONS

Our Board suffered the loss of two members during the year. Mrs. Anna M. Davis resigned in June, after several years of most faithful service. The vacancy thus caused was filled by the Selectmen appointing Mrs. Archibald Jones. Mrs. Jones was very much interested in the work and gave of her services most freely until she moved from town, when she resigned.

INCREASE IN CIRCULATION

The records of our librarian show there has been an increase in circulation, over the previous year, of about seven per cent. This shows that the library is serving the community, which is the only reason for its existence. In view of the fact that one hundred four new cards have been issued we have every reason to believe that numerous people have become interested in reading the best of books.

CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT

In this branch of the library work, is noticeable a great increase in circulation. The number of books issued in this department weekly is about 100% greater than a year ago, due largely to the cooperation existing between the Library and School. It is not an uncommon occurrence to find twenty-five pupils at the library on an evening to secure books for reference or general reading.

On June 16the the Library Trustees met at the Center School with a rpresentative of the School Department when nineteen certificates were awarded for "Home Reading with School Credit." Miss Dodge and Mr. Davis spoke briefly to the pupils on the necessity of forming the right habits of reading the best of literature, stating that a person is known by the books he reads as well as by the company he keeps.

During January, February and March the Story Hour maintained at the Library on Saturday mornings was most successful. Miss Middlebrook who, with Miss Leland, conducted this Story Hour has the following to say of it:

"An 'Hour of Story Telling' was held in the Library on Saturday mornings during the months of January, February and March. During the weeks this work was carried on forty-five different children were present, the lowest attendance at any one meeting being fifteen. Great interest was shown by the children, not only in their desire to be present, but also in the stories told while we were together. Children need and love stories and it was a pleasure to be with them."

This work would have been continued this year had it been possible to secure the services of a suitable person to carry on the work.

WORK ROOM

Through arrangements with the Board of Selectmen a part of the room formerly occupied by the Town Treasurer was added to the Library as a Storage and Work Room. It is now possible to keep the library more presentable in appearance and to carry on the great amount of repair work under more favorable conditions.

PUBLICITY

Due to the fact that our library occupies an inconspicuous place in the Town Hall it seemed advisable to the Trustees to place a sign on the west side of the entrance to give our library the necessary publicity. It is hoped there may, in the not too distant future, be erected within the town a library building which will occupy a conspicuous place within the community.

EXPENSE OF UPKEEP

An examination of the several expenditures shows that about one half is for upkeep, etc., allowing but about one half for replacing discarded books. This amount is entirely inadequate to allow making replacements for the books worn out by frequent use and for purchasing the necessary new books to keep the lists up to date. The Trustees, therefore, feel they are justified in requesting a small increase in the library appropriation for the year 1926. In so doing they are but speaking in the interests of the many patrons of the library.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK TARR,
JOHN F. A. DAVIS,
NELLIE A. DODGE,
ELIZABETH D. ANDERSON,
JOHN D. WHITTIER.
